30 Stamps FREE

Monday, May 3, we will give absolutely free 30 Green Stamps to every lady who brings her book to our store. It is not necessary to make a purchase in order to get these stamps. All you need to do is to bring your book to the booth in our store and we will paste the stamps in. Positively no free stamps will be given unless you bring your book. None will be given to children.

Green Stamps are only one of the many features that have made Gathof's the shopping center for shrewd buyers. There are many more. Come to our store Monday. You'll come again, for you'll find that "It Pays To Trade at Gathof's."

Shoes of Quality.

Quality is a shoe's best virtue. It is the main point to consider when buying shoes. Why buy "cheap" shoes elsewhere when for the same price we will fit your feet with a pair of shoes in which every penny counts for wear? Let us show you where we excel over others. Come to our store Monday and avail yourself of the splendid bargains we have to offer.

THE LATEST.

The center of the great storm which has left death and devastation in its wake passed through Georgia yesterday and incomplete reports indicate that forty or more persons were killed, the death list at Buchanan being the largest. Later reports from Tennessee indicate that probably 100 persons were killed in that State on Friday. The storm passed on to the Atlantic Ocean, where it is believed its force will soon be spent.

Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams, proprietors of the Indianapolis News, were formally arrested yesterday afternoon. They were released on $5,000 surety, each giving it for the other. They are charged with criminal libel in the Panama Canal matter. They will appear in court on May 31 for a hearing.

Three vessels were lost, one carrying down with it the crew of seven men, in the storm on the Great Lakes. An abandoned steel barge was picked up. The dinner table was set and the fate of the crew is unknown. The crew of the Aurora, which was caught in the ice and lost, escaped after a perilous trip.

The statement of the New York clearing-house banks for the past week shows that the banks hold $11,207,200 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent. reserve rule. This is an increase of $1,099,825 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with the previous week.

An attempt of a group of Socialists to hold a parade yesterday afternoon carrying red flags resulted in a small riot in Detroit. Two hundred policemen attacked the Socialists, tore down their flags and arrested several of them. The police destroyed all the banners.

United States Senators are studying Aldrich's substitute for the House maximum and minimum provision of the tariff bill and are astonished at its proposals. As President Taft has given the substitute his indorsement, it is conceded generally that it will be adopted.

Charles E. Booe, the defaulting clerk in the State Auditor's office, was formally sentenced yesterday to serve eight years more in prison, making thirteen years in all. The other indictments against him were dismissed.

The Government is about ready to close its case in the trial in the United States Court at Savannah, of the officials of the American Naval Stores Company, charged with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The cross-examination of Thornton J. Haine was concluded yesterday at the trial of his brother, Capt. Peter C. Haine, U. S. A., for killing William E. Annis. Another brother, Maj. Haine, testified later in the day.

Col. Roosevelt has killed three lions and is enthusiastic over his hunt in East Africa. Kermit Roosevelt also killed a lion and the party is now to go gunning for giraffes.

With the booming of salutes and the exchange of official visits, the Japanese training squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Ito, anchored yesterday in San Francisco Bay.

The American Sugar Refining Company will be prosecuted by the United States Government as a result of the disclosures made in the recent civil suit in New York.

Harroon Gaetanien, shot by his uncle, Dr. G. K. Boyajian, at Detroit, declared with his dying breath that he was not guilty of intimacy with his uncle's wife.

August Moos, a wealthy retired silk merchant, of Chicago, committed suicide by hanging himself from a bedpost. Ill health is given as the cause.

The body of the Emperor of China, who died in Peking last November, yesterday began its long journey to the Western tombs for final interment.

Miss "Johnny" Davidson, the young heiress, charged with the murder of Roy Ramsour, her sister's suitor, was acquitted yesterday at Neosho, Mo.

The Rev. John Farrelly was consecrated Bishop of Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday by Cardinal Gotti in the church of the American College in Rome.

Notwithstanding the fact that more than 2,000,000 bushels of wheat were delivered on May contracts, the Chicago wheat market was strong.

Zion City is on the verge of civil war. The Voliva faction has armed to resist the new officers taking control of the municipal offices.

Henry L. Palmer, of Milwaukee, head of the Scottish Rite branch of Masonry, has resigned his office because of ill health.

Reports indicate that probably $100,000 damage from storm and floods has been caused in Central and Eastern Kentucky.

Jim Hodges, a negro charged with assaulting a young white woman, was lynched by a mob at Tyler, Tex.

WITH STATE PACING A SERIOUS DEFICIT

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE AT END OF ITS WORK.

DECLARATIONS OF DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM IGNORED.

STATE FAIR BILL PASSED.

Nashville, Tenn., May 1.—(Special.)—The Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Tennessee completed its allotted session of seventy-five days to-day, and while it is still in session, may adjourn sine die some time during the night. The anti-Pattersonites, which includes the State-widens, have been endeavoring for several days to get through a resolution providing for a recess from last night until May 11 in order to bring their forces back at the latter date to override the veto of the Governor on some of their pet measures, but every time the resolution has come up it has been answered in the negative.

That both sides are tired, or at least that all of the members except the leaders are tired, was shown to-day when the House adopted a resolution to adjourn at midnight to-night. There was a considerable opposition vote, but the ayes had it by a substantial majority. The House then considered the general appropriation bill, and in the afternoon, after considerable wrangling, this session.

With these bills and the revenue bill out of the way, hundreds of local and general bills were left to be considered by the House. The Senate, after a week's delay and wrangling, passed the State Fair bill as it came from the House.

The bill to strengthen the election laws, governing injunctions in the courts, failed for want of a constitutional majority.

The session of the Assembly has been remarkable in the lack of attention to general legislation. From the first day, when the State-wide Democrats and the Republicans formed a coalition for the capture of the Speakerships, there has been turmoil. Few of the suggestions of Gov. Patterson have been given attention. The declarations of the Democratic platform have been ignored. Every question, every bill coming before the Assembly has been passed or rejected by the coalitionists, as best suited them. The special committees to investigate the various State institutions have cost more than at any time in the history of the State. The sinking fund law, by which was accumulated money with which to make payments on the State debt, has been suspended for two years and the State has been authorized to issue certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $200,000 in order to meet the deficiency in the treasury caused by the passage of the prohibition law.

Throughout the session the anti-saloon League has maintained headquarters in Nashville. Joining hands with the anti-Patterson politicians and office-seekers, they have controlled the Assembly, and not a single general measure which would benefit the Pattersonites or maintain the prohibitionists has been allowed to pass.

The session closed with the State facing a serious deficit in the treasury in the next few months, and with enactments endangering the supremacy of the Democratic party in the State in the next election.

AND CHEERED AT BROOKLYN SHOW

HER ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
DAY BEFORE.

EASTERN FRIENDS NOT AWARE OF HER INTENTION.

NEWS CAUSES MUCH SURPRISE

New York, May 1.—The World to-day says: Fashionable folk crowding the boxes at the Brooklyn Horse Show last night greeted Miss Emily H. Bedford with a rattle of applause when she appeared in the ring on her blue ribbon winner, Miss Anna Bedford, in the day of the engagement of the noted horsewoman to Preston Davis, of Louisville, Ky., had been announced formally, and the night's applause was society's way of giving approval.

Nevertheless, the announcement had caused general surprise. Few persons in society had heard of Preston Davis, who is a young attorney, devoted to his profession, and only positively interested in horse racing. Miss Bedford, on the contrary, is one of the most successful horse show exhibitors among Americans. She is the daughter of E. T. Bedford, of Brooklyn, a Standard Old, whose fortune is estimated at $20,000,000.

For the last five years Miss Bedford has been winning honors in all the great horse shows. In the West they call her "The Queen of the Saddle." Driving her own horses she has repeatedly beaten Alfred G. and Reginald Vanderbilt in hard competition.

Society has long predicted that Emily Bedford would choose a husband from the men of wealth in the horse show set. But last night she surprised her friends by announcing that she had accepted of the son of a horse show exhibitor. They did not suspect the truth until last February, when Miss Bedford introduced young Preston Davis to her father and explained affairs.

Mr. Davis is a six-footer and at one time was right guard on the Harvard football team. His father was George M. Davis, a leading lawyer of Kentucky.

The wedding will take place in this city in November.

Yesterday in her home, No. 131 Clinton street, Miss Bedford declined, laughing, to predict the date of her stable after her marriage. But some friends say that she plans to take all of her favorite horses to her new Kentucky home.

AID FOR ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO CHURCHES.

Methodist Board of Extension Decides To Push Its Work In The Far West.

Memphis, Tenn., May 1.—Working out a plan to bridge the gap between the East and South and the Western coast in church work, the Western board of the Methodist Church Extension Board, M. E. Church South, to-day, it was decided to devote more attention to the church in New Mexico and Arizona and thus give a clean sweep from coast to coast for the Methodist Church South. In line with this decision was made particularly liberal, considering the relation between requests and money on hand, and the presiding elder of the district, the Rev. J. E. Crutchfield, was given authority to raise $15,000 to advance the work of church extension in his section.

When the field in New Mexico and Arizona is in good shape the church

THOSE WHO RIDE MUST BE GOOD IN FUTURE, SAYS CHIEF HAAGER.

Issues Special Orders To Police Directing Them To Look After Street Car Passengers.

Frequent complaints have come to Chief of Police Haager about disorder on street cars, and with the coming of the new pay-as-you-enter cars, which, this morning, will be placed on the Portland Avenue car line, he has called the attention of members of the department to the matter relating to such matters. Hereafter the police will arrest those who use profane language aboard cars bound to and from the parks, or those who interrupt traffic by refusing to pay their fares.

If necessary, plain-clothes men will be placed on the street cars to see that the law is enforced.

The daily police bulletin of yesterday contained the following special order relating to the matter:

"Department of Police, Office of the Chief, Louisville, Ky., May 1, 1909.—General Order No. 30: The attention of the members of the department is hereby directed to the following special order of the General Statutes relative to street cars, which explains itself, and for its proper enforcement, the company or individual operating said car, falls or refuses to pay the proper fare on or in advance of the time when the ticket is deposited, or the same in the fare box, as may be required by any such ordinance, shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than ten dollars, with cost of suit, unless the defendant until fine and costs are paid. Provided, that on demand of such fare the person of whom demand is made, shall immediately leave the car instead of paying such fare."

Section 2, Police Courts and Mayors of municipal corporations in which the whole or greater part of the line of such street railway may be shall have final jurisdiction of offenses under the preceding section, whether the offense be committed within the limits of the corporation or beyond it."

A large mill situated at Macon, Ga., is already operating successfully in the use of okra stalks and the residue of okra stalks at a much lower cost than from the waste and other substances now commonly used in papermaking.

Mr. Laughlin, fiber expert of Chicago, is in Louisville for the purpose of investigating the use of okra stalks in the manufacture of paper. An acre of okra stalks produced 28,000 pounds of okra stalks.

Mr. Laughlin says that okra will grow and thrive in any Southern State and that it should average seven feet to the stalk when cultivated properly. The woody fiber of the stalk is used for paper, while the small pithy heart is useless.

However, from the outside of the stalk makes fine twine and rope.

Tennessee is making up the raising of the okra for papermaking purposes. Mr. Laughlin said yesterday that several hundred acres will be planted in this spring near Halls, Tenn., sixty-five miles this side of Memphis.

After the first shock of the accident

New Hampshire's Propeller Breaks and Vessel Was Drifting On To The Rocks.

New York, May 1.—The flashing of the C. & D. message late last night prevented the steamer New Hampshire, bound for Stonington, Conn., from going on the rocks of Long Island sound. When the New Hampshire's propeller struck a log and broke off a blade the vessel became helpless, and there was considerable excitement among the 100 passengers.

By order of Capt. F. H. Avery, the wireless operator sent a C. & D. message to the Brooklyn navy yard and from there the communication was sent to Oak Point, off which the New Hampshire reported itself as helpless. From there two transfer boats of the New Haven railroad were sent to the steamer's assistance. The relief boats quickly picked up the New Hampshire and towed it to its pier at New York.

Franklin, Ky., May 1.—(Special.)—The accompanying picture represents the old "Mulkey meeting-house," near Unionville, Ky. It is more than a century old, and is made famous by reason of the fact that a sister of Daniel Boone, the Kentucky pioneer, is buried in the cemetery near the old building.

PATTEN BIG WINNER

MAY WHEAT DEAL IS PRACTICALLY CLOSED.
Delivery Day At Chicago Sees Over 2,000,000 Bushels Delivered To Speculator's Firm.

Chicago, May 1.—This was delivery day on the Board of Trade and the option, which was the medium of the recent bull campaign led by James A. Patten, became cash wheat. On May contracts to-day 2,100,000 bushels of wheat were delivered, practically all of it to Bartlett, Patten & Co.

Brokers have hazarded a guess that Mr. Patten paid an average of $1.95 for his May wheat. Assuming this figure to be approximately correct, Mr. Patten might have sold the wheat delivered this morning at $1.12 for delivery in July, which would show a profit of four cents per bushel.

May wheat, however, opened to-day at $1.24 1/2 to $1.24 3/4, and a good demand for actual wheat enabled the bull leader to sell at a much greater profit than he had before.

While May is commonly known as delivery day, sellers have until the end of the month to turn over the wheat which they have sold. Formerly only No. 2 red winter wheat could be delivered on future contracts, but under a new rule of the board, made two years ago, No. 2 spring wheat was made standard. A large quantity of this latter, it is expected, will find its way down from the head of the lakes when navigation opens, thus swelling the amount in the Patten elevators.

No. 2 red wheat is selling at $1.41 1/2 to $1.44 1/2, and No. 2 spring at $1.29.

HEAD OF SCOTTISH RITE MASONS RESIGNS OFFICE.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 1.—Henry L. Palmer, sovereign grand commander of the Supreme Council, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of the Northern

UNMOVED ON HEARING THAT NEPHEW IS DEAD.

Gastonian, With Dying Breath, Swears He Was Not Intimate With Mrs. Boyajian.

Detroit, May 1.—Dr. G. K. Boyajian showed no emotion to-day when he was told at police headquarters that his nephew, Harcourt Gastonian, died last night from the bullet which the physician fired into his body yesterday in Police Court.

"I have nothing to say," was the only comment which the physician would make.

Gastonian maintained to the last that he was innocent of the charge of intimacy with his aunt, Mrs. Boyajian, on which he was being arraigned in Police Court when the madman shot him.

"With my dying breath I say that I am not guilty," the man stated to several reporters shortly before he became unconscious.

Chief of Detectives McDonald, however, confirms the statement of Dr. Boyajian that both the wife and nephew confessed their guilt Thursday afternoon after being arraigned.

Mrs. Boyajian was released from jail yesterday afternoon on $200 bond, and efforts to locate her among her friends this morning were unsuccessful.

MURDERERS OF DR. JONES CAPTURED ON LUZON.

Filipino Head Hunters Caught and Probably Will Pay Extreme Penalty.

Chicago, May 1.—Field Museum authorities have been notified by a telegram from Brig. Gen. C. R. Edwards in charge of insular affairs at Washington, that the murderers of Dr. William Jones, who was killed by head hunters on the island of Luzon, have been captured.

Director Skiff said the Washington officials received a cablegram from Dean Worcester, Secretary of the Interior in the Philippines, that the murderers were being taken to the nearest constabulary station.

"I suppose," said Curator G. A. Dorland, "that the constabulary are in command of the nearest constabulary. At the time of the murder he was sent out to investigate among the longotes, the tribes among whom Dr. Jones was doing his work. He evidently has the right parties and they doubtless will be dealt with summarily as an example."

WARRANTS OF ARREST

SERVED ON SMITH AND WILLIAMS AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Hearing May 31 On Question of Their Removal To District of Columbia For Trial.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 1.—The scene of the proceedings by the Governor of the United States against the proprietors of the New York World and the Indianapolis News, charging them with criminal libel in publishing articles intimating that there had been a "grat" of millions of dollars in the chambers of United States District Judge Anderson, shifted from New York to this city to-day, when Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams, owners of the Indianapolis News, were served with warrants for their arrest, based on indictments found against them by the grand jury of the District of Columbia. They gave surety of $5,000, each for the other, for their appearance in the United States District Court here on Monday, May 31, for hearing on the question whether or not they shall be removed to the District of Columbia for trial.

Today's action was as little as possible of the appearance of Criminal Court procedure. Late in the afternoon in the chambers of United States District Judge Anderson, there assembled the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, Charles W. Miller, United States Attorney for this district, the defendants and their attorneys, Ferdinand Winter of Indianapolis, and numerous prominent business men, friends of Messrs. Smith and Williams, who were ready to give bond for them, if it should be required.

The United States Marshal was not present, and when the attorney for the defendants had said that they had no objection to the immediate serving of warrants on them, it was necessary for an attendant to search the Federal building for a deputy marshal for the service. An agent of the Government's secret service, who had accompanied Mr. McNamara to this city, was not present in the judge's chambers. Mr. McNamara left this evening for New York. He will come again to Indianapolis on the day of the opening of the hearing here.

Messrs. Smith and Williams will resist removal to the District of Columbia, and the court will hear evidence on the merits of the case. The verified copy of the indictment, filed to-day, contains copies of the articles of both papers and the names of the libelous complaint is made that they are libelous.

Another brother on the witness stand. Burden of Maj. Hains' Testimony Is That the Defendant Was "Irrational."

Flushing, N. Y., May 1.—Two weeks of the Hains trial have passed. Court adjourned to-day, after a forenoon session only, with Maj. John Powell presiding. The defense to show that the defendant, on the stand, Lieke Thornton J. Hains, the brother who preceded him, Maj. Hains attempted by his testimony for the defense to show that Peter C. Hains, Jr., was insane when he shot William E. Annis. There were several other witnesses, and the trial continued to-day.

NO AID FOR HAMILTON.

Hamilton, O., May 1.—Andrew Carnegie to-day turned down Hamilton's application for $50,000 to enlarge the Lane Free Library, given the city by the late Carnegie of Elkhart, Ind. Mr. Carnegie said that it would be profanation to associate any other name with Lane's gift, and that the city should be sufficiently appreciative to enlarge it itself.

Married At Vincennes, Ind., May 1.—(Special.)—W. H. Little, son of Buford Little, of Paducah, Ky., and Miss Jennie Sumner, of Sumner, Ill., were married to-day.

KING OF GHOULS

Granted Conditional Parole From Michigan City Prison.

NEGRO HEADED ORGANIZED GANG OF GRAVE ROBBERS.

WIFE GRANTED DIVORCE AFTER FORTY YEARS.

HUSBAND FAILED TO PROVIDE.

Information reached Jeffersonville yesterday that Rufus Cantrell, colored, formerly known as "King of the Ghoul," who came to the Indiana Reformatory on April 1, 1908, and was transferred to the Indiana State Prison at Michigan City on November 8, 1908, had been granted a conditional parole to-day. He was employed and kept away from Indianapolis. In case he is released he will be under the supervision of the board of trustees of the Indiana Reformatory, that being a working rule of the two institutions. So far no one has come forward to offer a helping hand to the ex-king.

Wife Given Divorce. Married forty years ago this month, Mrs. Evaline Zollman, as the complaint has the name, was granted a divorce in the Clark Circuit Court at Jeffersonville yesterday afternoon from her husband, Zollman, who is nearly 70 years old and was formerly a thrifty farmer. The defendant did not appear in court, and there was little evidence offered. It having been decided that it was best for both parties to allow the divorce to be granted without a contest. Nothing was said about alimony, although Mrs. Zollman in her original complaint, which was filed November 19, 1908, asked judgment for $1,000.

The ground for a divorce, as set up by Mrs. Zollman, was failure to provide for two years previous to filing the suit, and was alleged the defendant owned property of the value of $2,000. The filing of the suit caused a surprise among the acquaintances of the aged pair, as it was the understanding that they had mutually agreed to separate so they could make their home with relatives. They have several married sons and daughters and a number of grandchildren.

CONVICT SAYS HE IS MISSING CASHIER

A. J. WHITE'S DEPOSITION IN INSURANCE CASE.

MAINTAINS HE IS GEORGE A. KIMMEL, OF ARKANSAS CITY.

MINUTE DETAILS OF CAREER.

St. Louis, Mo., May 1.—Another development in the strange insurance case in the history of the courts was revealed today when attorneys for the New York Life Insurance Company filed in the United States Circuit Court in St. Louis the deposition of a convict in the Auburn, N. Y. State prison. The convict, Andrew J. White, declares he is George A. Kimmel, cashier of the Farmers' State Bank of Arkansas City, Kan., who disappeared more than ten years ago.

The witness graphically tells a story of being drugged and imprisoned in an Olive-street rooming house in St. Louis for three weeks.

The convict's identity as Kimmel is denied by Kimmel's relatives, who are suing for insurance on his life. Kimmel has already been declared dead by the St. Louis court, but the United States Circuit Court of Appeals has declared the evidence insufficient, and the judgment against the insurance company was reversed. The case is to be tried anew in St. Louis.

Shortly after insuring his life for $25,000 in 1888 in favor of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Bonsett, Kimmel disappeared from Arkansas City. Detectives followed him to Kansas City, but no further trace of him was found until White, an inmate of a New York asylum for the criminal insane, three years ago declared himself to be Kimmel. He was later pronounced sane and transferred to Auburn.

Kimmel's deposition consists of 700 typewritten pages, throughout which he endeavors to identify himself as Kimmel. His explanation of his disappearance is that a relative was implicated in the embezzlement of $100,000 from the Farmers' State Bank, and that he had damaging evidence against him. He declared the relative and others caused him to be drugged and kept a prisoner in St. Louis. Kimmel tells of leaving Arkansas City July 25, 1888, and going to Topeka, Kan., to dispose of some county bonds. Transacting that business, he went to the Midland Hotel in Kansas City. Here, he said, he received a message from the relative asking him to meet him. The message was delivered by a man named Hartman, whom Kimmel had met several months before in Kansas City.

Kimmel entered a cab with Hartman. A cigar which Hartman gave him made him dizzy, and when they entered a room after a short ride he found his relative and several other persons present. He drank a glass of liquor, lost consciousness and awoke in a strange room, and afterward learned was in St. Louis, near Sixteenth and Olive streets. He was kept there under Hartman's guard for three weeks, and when he escaped was beaten on the street by the relative and the latter's friends.

Kimmel says he awakened from the second encounter in a hospital, remained there several months and left St. Louis in the spring of 1893, going to Cincinnati and Philadelphia.

The suit in which the deposition was taken was that of the receiver of the First National Bank of New York against the New York Life Insurance Company. Mrs. Bonsett had assigned the insurance policy to the receiver of the bank.

While the convict, White, declared he is Kimmel, Kimmel's sister, Mrs. Bonsett, insists the man is not her brother. The attorneys of the insurance company contend White is Kimmel and that an attempt is being made to defraud the insurance company.

The deposition is a most important part in the case, and it is every detail of Kimmel's life that he gives. He says he is a native of Arkansas City, and that he was born in 1860. He says he was a cashier of the Farmers' State Bank, and that he was embezzled of $100,000. He says he was drugged and kept a prisoner in St. Louis for three weeks, and when he escaped was beaten on the street by the relative and the latter's friends.

TO WESTERN TOMBS

BODY OF DEAD CHINESE EMPEROR BEING CARRIED.

Departure From Peking Marked By Ceremony of Unusual Splendor.

Peking, May 1.—The body of Kwang Hsu, the Emperor of China, was carried in Peking last night. The body was taken on a journey to the Western Tombs, eighty miles away, for burial. The ceremony was one of unusual splendor and dignity. It was witnessed by a large number of foreigners, including the members of the diplomatic corps and the members of the several missions sent to Peking by foreign Governments expressly to represent them at the final obsequies.

The procession started from the precincts of the Forbidden City at 11 o'clock in the morning. The members of the tombs will take four days, and the entire route to be the longest highway specially constructed for the passage of the imperial coffin. The coffin in which the body is to be interred is made of heavy wood. The inside is lined with cypress wood, and is covered with a covering of cypress wood, which, in turn, is enclosed in a further hide, while the whole is covered with a stout shield made from the hide of the water buffalo.

There were 12 catafalque bearers, and it took the paces, which was two miles long, two and a half hours to get clear of the Forbidden City. The route for the four miles was lined with Chinese officials and guards by Chinese troops. The Chinese officials, who were the members of the diplomatic corps, witnessed the procession from a point within the imperial city.

The United States was represented by Minister W. W. Rockwell, and Great Britain by Minister Sir John Jordan. The recent accompanied the catafalque as far as the city gates, whence he returned to the palace.

Following the departure of the paces, Prince Chun, the Crown Prince, expressed his pleasure at meeting so many foreign dignitaries. He also expressed his pleasure at the gratification of the Government at the presence of so many strangers.

The imperial tombs will not be completed for two years, and the actual interment of the remains will have to be deferred for this length of time. The tomb will cost, it is estimated, considerably over $1,000,000.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN A NEW COURTHOUSE.

Had Been Positively Identified By Young Woman Whom He Had Assaulted.

Tyler, Tex., May 1.—A mob broke into the jail here to-day, secured Jim Hodges, a negro charged with assaulting and seriously injuring Miss Winnie Harman near here last night, took him to the new courthouse, where he was lynched and hanged him to some scaffolding.

Miss Harman, who is eighteen years of age, is a popular young lady, and lives two miles west of Tyler. Last night she was overpowered by Hodges and dragged into a barn. After a search was started, and she was found in the barn three hours later by her brother. Her neck, arms and waist were badly bruised.

The mob, which was composed of about 1,000 persons, commenced to form early in the day. About noon, the mob battered down the doors of the jail and secured the negro. The Governor had been wired for troops, but the work of the mob was accomplished so quickly that there was no time for the militia to reach the scene.

During the progress of the lynching, business was practically suspended, and the greatest excitement prevailed in the city. Hodges was positively identified by Miss Harman.

To-morrow, in the main aisle, we will make a special showing of an unusually attractive assortment of Hat Pins, Brooch Pins, Beauty Pins, Earrings, Dutch Collar Pins, etc., about 2,500 pieces in all, priced, choice 50c.

$11.85

This is one of the Tailored Suits drawn from life. It is a fine serge, white ground with wide black stripes. It is one of the most stylish suits of the season, but remember there are 224 others just as attractive, and don't forget you have choice of black, the pretty plain shades and fancy weaves. Every size can be accommodated.

Suits of this value have never been sold in Louisville under $40.00. During this May sale you have unrestricted choice at $25.

Here are two of the Waists. These are also drawn from life and are exact reproductions. They are made of the sheerest mull and are extravagantly trimmed with lace, embroidery and fancy medallions, but there are 798 others in this collection that will prove just as interesting, and may please you better than these.

Not a Waist in the lot but would easily sell for $3.00. Pick out as many as you like at $1.85 each.

This is one of the Silk Dresses. An actual reproduction. It is a most delightful garment; made of finest plaid taffeta silk; beautifully piped and embellished. There are 117 others in the assortment, including plain black and a supreme assortment of stripes and checks; all daintily trimmed with laces and other tasty embellishments. All sizes can be fitted.

This value in other stores would cost at least $20.00. During this sale you have absolute choice at $11.85.

LOUISVILLE MEN FINED FOR ILLEGAL VOTING.

Charged With Attempt To Cast Ballots In Local Option Election At Madison, Ind.

Madison, Ind., May 1.—Six men from Louisville, arrested here as alleged election repeaters and who were charged with attempting to vote illegally, were fined $10 and sent to jail and the rock pile for thirty days.

Sheriff Gray and Marshal Kremer this evening arrested and jailed two more men for alleged illegal voting. They are brothers, and one of them is not of age. After being released at two o'clock this morning, they were taken to the first precinct of the city and also at the first precinct of the First ward. They will be tried Monday. The prisoners are George and Martin Clock. Nine have so far been arrested and others are expected to be.

STORM PLAYS QUEER FREAK AT PARIS.

Paris, Ky., May 1.—The storm played a queer freak at the home of J. A.

Wagner, five miles from Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, who had not retired, became alarmed and sought the shelter of a dairy house in the rear of their residence. The storm caught up the front veranda of their home, lifted it over the house and dashed it to the ground just in front of the entrance to the dairy house, effectually blocking the way.

It is reported that the storm was not so much a freak as it was a warning. A big sixteen-inch iron sewer pipe in the crossing Houston creek was swept away, and twenty barns in the county were demolished.

EDDYVILLE QUARANTINES AGAINST KUTAWA.

Paducah, Ky., May 1.—Owing to an epidemic of smallpox at Kutawa a quarantine has been established against that town by Eddyville. There are about forty cases there, according to Dr. B. H. Lynn, the Health Officer.

It is a full form and is traced to a fifteen girl who recently gave a party. Fifteen children who attended the party developed the disease. Wholesale vaccination is in progress.

Circuit Judge Breaks Leg.

Madison, Ind., May 1.—Circuit Judge Hiram Francisco slipped and fell at his country home, breaking the small bones and ligaments of his right ankle. He will be confined to his home for weeks, and cannot hold court next week at Vay, Switzerland county.

BIG WRANGLE IN THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT JACKSON.

Nominations For Jailer and County Attorney Causes Bump Among Delegates.

Madison, Ky., May 1.—[Special]—The Republican mass convention held here this afternoon broke up in a general row over the Jailer and County Attorney races. The first nomination was for County Jailer, which J. C. Hurd received by acclamation. The next in order was the nomination for Jailer. For this office there were four candidates. The convention was unable to determine their choice in the first ballot, and adjourned to the streets. Here the crowd became a howling mob, unmanageable.

After trying in vain to reduce the howling delegates to some degree of order, J. C. Hurd, who had been elected to the courthouse, where the nomination for the other positions proceeded rapidly until the County Attorney race was reached. For this there were two candidates, Mr. Hurd and Mr. Hurd. Upon a division of the house it seemed that Mr. Kelly had the majority, but the other side not being satisfied with this, demanded that a line-up be made on the street. This was done and the tellers declared that Mr. Hurd had a majority, whereupon he was declared the nominee.

It was later determined in the County Clerk's office, to which the chairman and a few of the delegates had adjourned, that Alex W. Turner was the nominee for Jailer. This was a great and widespread dissatisfaction with the result.

Name Star Chamber Committee.

St. Sterling, Ky., May 1.—[Special]—Republicans of Montgomery county met in convention here to-day. No nominations were made, and the following resolution was offered and passed: That the chairman of the county committee, to be selected by him, be the nominating committee, with full power to make nominations for any and all offices.

MIDWAY DISTRICTS TO VOTE ON SCHOOL TAX.

Midway, Ky., May 1.—County Judge James T. Wilhoit has ordered an election to be held on June 8, in the Midway, South Midway and North Midway school districts, to take the sense of the voters as to whether a tax shall be levied for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a graded high school in this city for the benefit of the school patrons of these three districts. The movement has the indorsement of the Woodford County Board of Education.

STORM CAUSES AGED WOMAN TO DIE OF FRIGHT.

Seymour, Ind., May 1.—Mrs. Letty A. Brown, age ninety-three years, died at her home, three miles west of this city, last night. During the storm her house was shaken and two windows were broken by the hard wind. This so frightened her that she died in twenty minutes. She came to this country with her parents in 1818 from Ohio.

Plan July 4 Celebration.

Seymour, Ind., May 1.—The Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows and the Modern Woodmen of this city, are planning a military celebration for the Fourth of July in this city. The uniformed companies of these three orders have the arrangements in charge. They will arrange for drill teams and of fee prizes. The drill teams from different cities will participate in the prize drill. There will be a company drill and battalion drill.

MARKET SPACE

Ordered Improved by Board of Public Works.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF NATIONAL CEMETERY NAMED.

"DRYS" FILE PETITION FOR LOCAL OPTION ELECTION.

SMITH FILES DAMAGE SUIT.

The Board of Public Works of New Albany, at the meeting of that body yesterday, adopted a resolution calling for the improvement of the market space between State and Pearl streets, on Market street, that has been objectionable to the entire community for years. The resolution provides for the improvement of the space with fourteen-foot sidewalks on each side, with a thirty-foot roadway in the center, and a thirty-two-foot space formerly occupied by the market-house.

This thirty-two-foot space is to be of concrete, slightly raised, with a curb around it. The property owners are to pay for the sidewalks and for thirty feet of roadway on either side and for the concrete center. This will make the cost to the property owners about the same as would be the expense of an eighty-foot street. May 22 was fixed as the date on which to hear objections from property owners.

The board received a petition from Mary O. W. Daniel, James Brooks and Isaiah Gordon asking for the brick improvement of the alley between Vincennes and Galt streets, from Market street to Division street. City Engineer Mann was instructed to prepare plans and specifications.

It was reported that no attention had been paid by the asphalt company to the orders of the Board of Public Works to make repairs to the streets and it is probable that suit will be filed.

Cemetery Superintendent.

Capt. John W. Durbin, a veteran of the Civil War, has been appointed superintendent of the national cemetery on Elm avenue, to succeed Capt. W. A. Albersson, who resigned several weeks ago on account of ill health. Capt. Durbin assumed charge of the cemetery yesterday.

He was superintendent of the national cemetery near Memphis, Tenn., for two years, and twenty-one months ago he was appointed superintendent of the cemetery at Staunton, Va., which position he held until his appointment to New Albany. He is a former resident of New Albany and his appointment to his present place brings him to his old home and among his relatives and friends.

Local Option Petition.

A petition for a local option election was filed yesterday afternoon with County Auditor Julian T. Miller at New Albany to be presented to the Board of County Commissioners at the May term, which convenes on Monday. The application was filed by the Hon. J. R. Duffin and Dr. E. A. Severynious, acting for the following: The petition contained 1,630 signatures, 1,565 being required under the law.

It is understood that if the commissioners act favorably on the petition the election will be held during the last week of May or the first week in June.

Wants Big Damages.

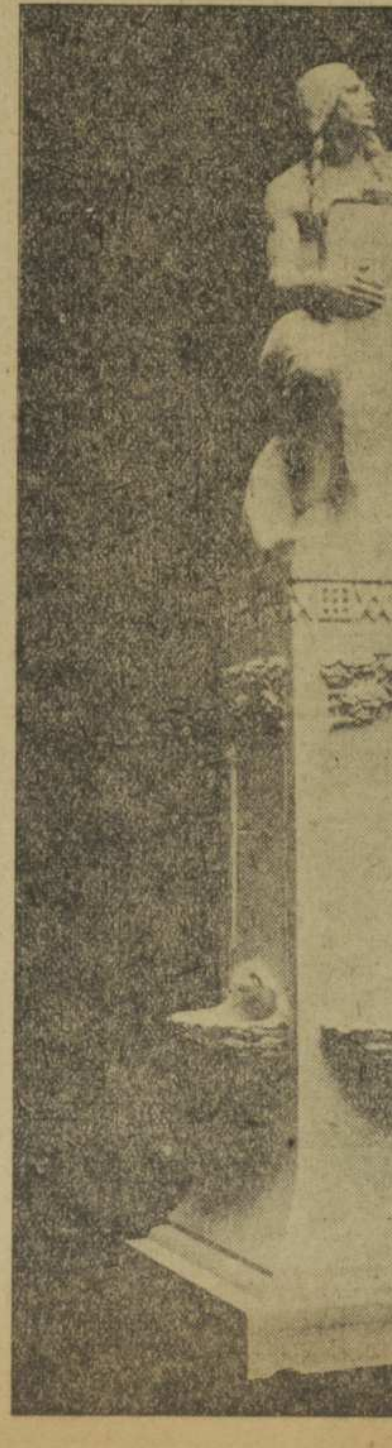

Wilbur D. Smith has filed suit in the Floyd Circuit Court at New Albany through his attorneys, Stoenberg & Weathers, to recover damages against the Ohio Falls Iron Company for alleged personal injuries sustained. It is alleged, that the company employed in its puddling department and while hauling cinders and slag from the furnace was badly burned by a red-hot cinder falling in a pool of water and causing an explosion. It is alleged that he was permanently crippled and that the accident was due to the negligence of the defendant company.

Joseph Virgil Summers, of Georgetown, Floyd county, has instituted an action in the Floyd Circuit Court at New Albany against the Southern Railway Company to recover $200 as damages for injuries sustained by striking a railway spike into his foot. He was crossing the track at Georgetown, when he injured his right foot by striking it against a spike. He claims that the damage was caused by the negligence of the servants of the company.

Teamster Reprimanded.

At a session of the Juvenile Court, held in New Albany yesterday morning Harry Shanny, a teamster, answered to a charge of having permitted Robert Parker, a 15-year-old boy, to ride on his wagon, encouraging him to play truant. Affirmative.

HANDSOME FOUNTAIN ERECTED BY PADUCAH CHAPTER, DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

the evidence had been heard Shanny was released with his reprimand, but Judge Utz declared that in the future fines would stand against all teamsters convicted of this sort of crime.

Herman Witt pleaded not guilty to a charge of encouraging delinquency in children and his case was set for trial next Saturday. The case of Otto Joeclty, a juvenile charged with truancy, was called. It developed that the child was out of the city, and the mother was cited to appear next Saturday.

FINDS FRIENDS.

VICTIM OF PREACHER CAMPBELL'S LOVE RECEIVES AID.

Family Who Knew Her Back In Kentucky Offers Assistance In St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., May 1.—[Special]—Although the man for whom she deserted her home and sweetheart, has left her and gone to New York, Miss Josephine Hosley, who was arrested here Wednesday night with the Rev. Perry R. Campbell, a minister at her former home, Stamping Ground, Ky., lives on in hope that she may begin life anew in St. Louis.

Campbell and Miss Hosley were released Friday and Campbell immediately left the Central Station without inquiring for the girl. Later it was learned that he was going to New York. At first it was thought that Miss Hosley's parents would come and get her, but they did not come to-day and it was finally decided to place the girl in some home for girls.

Later this afternoon a conductor on one of the St. Louis street car lines came to police headquarters and asked for Miss Hosley. He would not tell what he wanted at first, but finally said that his wife and Miss Hosley's sisters had been friends in Stamping Ground and that she was anxious to help her former friends. The man said that his name was Johnson, but he would tell no more. It was agreed that Miss Hosley would stay with the man until to-morrow morning when Johnson and his wife would call for her, with the amount of money necessary to go to Stamping Ground.

Miss Hosley says she wants to stay in St. Louis until the storm caused by her appearance has blown over at Stamping Ground.

ARTIST'S BODY

GIVEN CHRISTIAN BURIAL BY COL. JOHN WHALEN.

Frank Bolton For Ten Years Designed and Executed Scenery For Auditorium.

The body of Frank McDonald, better known in Louisville as Frank Bolton, whose death occurred at the Little Sisters of the Poor a few days ago, was taken from a vault in St. Louis cemetery yesterday afternoon and consigned to the grave. Few ever remembered Frank Bolton, or Frank McDonald, notwithstanding the fact that at one time he was probably one of the best-known scenic artists and stage carpenters in the country. For ten years he designed and painted all the scenery used in the old Auditorium at Fourth and Hill street. In the days gone by, when the Auditorium was the scene of many of the largest productions of the city, Bolton was in charge of the big stage, and amusement-going people looked upon the attractive and artistic scenes that were produced by Bolton's ready brush.

Frank Bolton's skill in the production of scenery and his ability as a stage carpenter was widely recognized by stage people when he was in his prime, and during the life of the old Auditorium. When the place was closed Bolton accepted a position with Reese & Co., an aving concern, where he remained until bad health forced him to give up work. He was finally compelled to become a ward of charity, going to the home of the Little Sisters, where his death occurred.

When death came Col. John H. Whalen, an old-time friend of Bolton, took charge of the body. Col. Whalen at once sought Bolton's relatives, after placing the body in a vault. He at last found Bolton's wife at Red Bank, N. J. She requested that the body be buried in Louisville. This was done yesterday, at the instance and expense of Col. Whalen.

VICTIMS OF LONG SIEGE ARE FINED IN COURT.

By agreed judgment, Frank Montgomery, who conducts a saloon at Twentieth street and Portland avenue, was fined $15 on a charge of violating the Sunday-closing law in the Police court yesterday. J. C. Roman, a bartender, was assessed the same fine, but it was later reduced to $3. Eleven cents.

Bud Robinson, John Bullock, J. T. Garvey, William Donnelly, John Mills, Edward Spaulding, Jerry Corcoran, Chris Miller, John O'Bryan, Lee Logsdon and William Hixson, who were in the saloon, were each fined $3 on disorderly conduct charges.

Lieut. Foster, in command of half a dozen policemen, made a raid on the saloon yesterday and after a siege lasting from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until midnight the men were taken into custody.

INDICTMENTS FOR ALLEGED ILLEGAL SALE OF LIQUOR.

Danville, Ky., May 1.—Three hundred indictments were returned to-day against B. W. Durham, a druggist at Junction City, charging him with selling whisky illegally in local option territory. Many indictments were also returned against other persons.

CITY FEATURES.

Six Miles of Display Windows.

There are this morning over a thousand windows decorated in festive appearance showing gay flags, bright colors and most artistic effects for wall decoration. They are attracting much attention and great interest and are very attractive and worth looking at.

Just think, over one thousand windows at least one thousand and more decorated in this manner to-day. If all of these windows were placed side by side in one great street they would cover an area six miles long at the lowest estimate.

Think of walking over six miles of material for the better decoration of homes. These windows are all filled with Alabastine, the sanitary wall coating, the use of which has become a permanent feature in the decoration of homes.

The Alabastined wall is not only the handsomest wall, but it is also the most economical. It is estimated that this spring half a million homes will be decorated with Alabastine walls.

This method of decoration must not be confused with the common hot-water kalsomine or tinted wall. Alabastine is permanent; the other materials are mere substitutes and are always unsatisfactory in results.

As you pass down the street to-morrow morning or on your way to church to-morrow please notice the beautiful flag and the appearance of the Alabastined windows in this city.

IN MEMORIAM.

In Memory of Henry Hesh, Who Departed This Life April 28, 1903.
Dear Father, just one year ago they laid you to rest the soil; Your soul put in immortal wings, And took its flight to God. You'll find a home where angels dwell—A home where there's no death nor pain—A brighter home than this.

BAPTISTS COME IN THOUSANDS

To Great Southern Convention Next Week.

Will Celebrate Golden Jubilee of Their Seminary.

All Sessions To Be Held At The Armory.

2,000,000 ARE REPRESENTED.

Baptists from all over the South will assemble in Louisville next week. It will be the time for their fifty-fourth annual session, and it is estimated that fully 5,000 delegates and visitors will be in the city. The Rev. M. P. Hunt, D. D., chairman of the committee on entertainment, has sent bulletins to all parts of the South giving information concerning hotels and boarding-houses, places of meeting for the various subsidiary organizations, and general plans for handling the crowds expected. Dr. Hunt says that all the room at the Galt House, which will be the headquarters, have already been reserved, and that present prospects indicate that the attendance will be the largest in the history of the convention. Other hotels in the city are filling up rapidly, and a circular of information concerning boarding-houses has been prepared.

Represent Large Constituency.

The Southern Baptist Convention represents a constituency of over 2,000,000 white Baptists. Sessions are held each year in May, the last session having been held in Hot Springs, Ark. The convention does not settle any questions of doctrine, the Baptist idea being that each local church is the supreme court before which all such questions should be determined. According to the constitution of the convention, its object is "to promote foreign and domestic missions and other important objects connected with the Kingdom of God, and to combine for this purpose such portions of the Baptist denomination of the United States as may desire a general organization for Christian benevolence, which shall fully respect the independence and equal rights of the churches."

Preliminary Meetings.

While the convention proper does not meet until Thursday evening, May 13, various related bodies will be in session throughout the day Wednesday and Thursday. These are always well attended, and it is safe to predict that the majority of the delegates will have arrived by Wednesday night.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Young People's Union of the South will begin its sessions at 2:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 12, at the First Regiment Armory building, which will be the convention hall. The committee in charge has just made public the following programme:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12.

2:30 p. m.—Opening exercises by President W. W. Hamilton, Atlanta, Ga.

3:00 p. m.—Address, Rev. Caleb A. Ridley, D. D., Beaumont, Tex. Subject: "Visions."

3:30 p. m.—Address, Rev. John E. Briggs, Atlanta, Ga. Subject: "How the B. Y. P. U. Helped Capitol Avenue Church."

4:00 p. m.—Reports of Executive Committee, Educational Committee and Treasurer.

Other business.

8:00 p. m.—Devotional Service, led by Rev. J. M. Frost, Nashville, Tenn.

8:30 p. m.—Address, Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, D. D., Baltimore, Md. Subject: "To Obey Is Better Than Sacrifice."

9:10 p. m.—Address, Hon. E. W. Stephens, Columbia, Mo. Subject: "The World's Health and Southern Baptist Young People."

THURSDAY, MAY 13.

9:30 a. m.—Devotional Service, led by Prof. John R. Sampey, D. D., Louisville, Ky.

10:00 a. m.—Address, Hon. J. H. Tucker, Asheville, N. C. Subject: "Is the B. Y. P. U. Worth While?"

10:40 a. m.—Address, Rev. T. B. Ray, D. D., Richmond, Va. Subject: "Mission Studies in Young People's Societies."

11:15 a. m.—Address, R. H. Coleman, Dallas, Tex. Subject: "The Encampment Idea."

11:45 a. m.—Reports of Committees and Election of Officers.

2:30 p. m.—Devotional Service, led by Rev. W. C. James, Richmond, Va.

3:00 p. m.—Address, Rev. L. J. Van Ness, D. D., Subject: "B. Y. P. U. Literature."

3:30 p. m.—Open Conference (speeches limited to two minutes).

3:45 p. m.—Address, Rev. C. W. Duke, Tampa, Fla. Subject: "Practical Work for the B. Y. P. U."

4:15 p. m.—Address, Mr. Arthur Pike, Winona, Miss. Subject: "Looking on the Fields."

Miscellaneous matters and adjournment.

Southern Baptist Laymen.

The Southern Baptist Laymen will begin the sessions of their convention at the same hour on Wednesday, the meetings to be held in the Broadway Baptist Church. The local committee on arrangements for these meetings consists of J. H. Chandler, T. D. Osborne and A. E. Norman, and these announce that the laymen of Louisville will give a banquet to their brother delegates at the Galt House, beginning at 8 p. m., Tuesday, May 11. At least one hundred laymen outside of Kentucky will be furnished free tickets. The programme for the convention follows:

Bargains Are Not Bargains Until Proven So.

It is a very easy matter for the advertising man when writing his ad, to price a certain article in the list of so-called bargains, thinking he can persuade the customer by mentioning a fictitious value or much higher selling price than the article in question ever WAS worth. THIS IS NOT STERN'S METHOD OF OFFERING bargains. Every article advertised is HONESTLY worth just what we claim for it, and is a BARGAIN at the prices quoted.

We invite your judgment in the Bargains quoted here.

NEW PAY PLAN

ON STREET CARS WILL BE INTRODUCED TO-DAY.

First Test Will Be Made On the Shelby Street and Portland Avenue Line.

Where Chief Interest Centers.

The four general objects which claim most of the time of the convention are "Home Missions," "Foreign Missions," "Sunday-school and Bible Work" and the "Southern Baptist Theological Seminary." The chief interest of the convention will center about the anniversary of the founding of the institution and the tenth anniversary of the coming of President Mullins to preside over its affairs. This institution has sent sixty-three missionaries to the foreign fields, and in almost every city, town and county in the South her alumni may be found. Many of these will come back to Louisville next week and pay homage to their alma mater. But there will be something more significant in their affection. During the past year a movement was started to increase the seminary's endowment by $600,000, and this movement will unquestionably receive a powerful stimulus at the coming convention. Several States have already pledged their support of this amount. The seminary jubilee banquet will take place at the Galt House at 8 p. m. on Wednesday, May 12. An excellent menu and programme have been arranged, and it is believed that the convention will be a most successful one.

Some Incidental Features.

The Rev. W. W. Hamilton, of Atlanta, has given notice that he will move to change the time of holding the annual meeting of the convention. He believes that they ought to be held during June instead of May. He contends that if held during June the meetings will not conflict with the national and commencement schedules, and also that more business men would attend.

The Rev. H. A. Porter, pastor of the Walnut-street Baptist church of this city, has raised enough money to pay for a monument to the memory of the late Rev. T. T. Eaton, who was Dr. Porter's predecessor in the Walnut-street church's pastorate. He will ask the convention to adjourn at a suitable hour on Saturday afternoon, May 15, and attend the unveiling of the monument in Cave Hill cemetery. The address of the occasion will be delivered by the Rev. A. C. Dixon, of Chicago.

The Rev. M. P. Hunt, chairman of the committee on arrangements, states that handsome souvenir badges have been provided for the delegates. He has also ordered 1,200 souvenir badges for visitors, and the demand will be supplied up to that number.

The Rev. W. P. Harvey, president of the Baptist World Congress, has invited the editors of the Southern Baptist papers to be his guests on a visit to the Mammoth Cave. The time of our visit will be such as to best suit the convenience of the editors themselves.

Already five cities are clamoring for the convention in 1910. These are Baltimore, Asheville, Jacksonville, Oklahoma City and St. Joseph. The claims of these various cities are being presented through the denominational press.

Louisville will be formally introduced to the pay-as-you-enter cars to-day. The new type of cars will be run on the Portland and Shelby-street lines, and it is up to the riding public to follow the letter the instructions that the Louisville street railway has issued through the Louisville newspapers if they want to assist in promoting rapid transit.

For the first few days there is bound to be some confusion and delay, as the conductors have not yet had time to learn to make change quickly, see that all the passengers are aboard before he gives two bells for the start and at the same time see that all of the passengers drop their cent piece into the fare box. It will be a matter of days when the conductors have it down pat and the public will take to them like ducks to water.

The new cars are not unlike the ones now in use. The rear platform, divided by an iron tumbler, has an entrance and exit. The extreme rear space is the entrance and at the opposite end from the steps is an inner door, at which the fare-box is located and into which one must deposit his fare before he gets inside. If you don't happen to have the nickel the conductor will make change, but if you are a public-spirited citizen and wish to aid in the company's attempt at rapid transit, you had better see that you have the 5-cent piece ready as you climb the steps into the entrance of the car.

The other space on the rear platform is an exit. It is a waste of time trying to enter the car by this means, as you will have to climb down on the steps and around the rail and drop your fare in the box.

Passengers can make their exit from either end, although the rear entrance is the only way that the car can be boarded. The door on the front platform is operated by a coin slot, and thus all danger of alighting from the car while it is in motion is impossible, for the door is not opened until the fare is brought to a full stop. The door is closed immediately after the passengers are on the street. The motorist will not start his car with the doors open or before the passengers have reached the street.

The conductor is stationed on the rear platform at all times. He stands within the exit rail and makes sure that passengers drop their fares in the fare box. A person with a bill of large denomination can delay traffic considerably, if he attempts to get above the street without the time a dozen others get on, for the conductor has got to make change and the entrance is congested.

A feature that will appeal to the men folk is that smoking is permitted on the front platform.

DR. E. L. POWELL TALKS TO COLORED TEACHERS.

The Rev. E. L. Powell, pastor of the First Christian church, was the principal speaker yesterday at the Colored Teachers' Institute at the Central High School, Ninth and Magazine streets.

The subject was "Vision for the Future," and he addressed the practical side of life and said that vision calls one to duty, to action, and urges them to say, "I can, I ought, I will."

"Nothing is a man," said the speaker, "who wills and has grit and grip to do as duty calls." He urged the teachers to look upon the profession of teaching as a delightful duty and that their calling was an honorable one.

Prof. John T. Clark discussed "What Should Physiology Do for the Average Pupil?" Prof. Joseph Cotter, principal of the Eighth and Kentucky-street school, presented the children of the first grade, who gave practical lessons in English recitations.

ANOTHER KICK Comes From Candidate In Fayette Primary.

J. FRANKLIN WALLACE MAKES CHARGES OF UNFAIRNESS.

CALLS ON CHAIRMAN PREWITT TO TAKE ACTION.

MINISTER FEARS SON IS DEAD.

Lexington, Ky., May 1.—(Special.)—As Chairman H. B. Prewitt, of the Democratic State Central Committee, on his visit here yesterday was unable to find any candidates for the Democratic nomination for county officer to father the complaint against the Democratic City and County Committee concerning the primary to be held next Tuesday, J. Franklin Wallace, a candidate for County Attorney, to-day assumed the responsibility of asking Mr. Prewitt to take up the matter and mailed to Mr. Prewitt the following letter:

"Hon. Henry B. Prewitt, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, Mr. Sterling, I hereby protest against the action of the Fayette County Democratic Committee in the selection of election officers for the coming primary and the methods to be pursued at said primary. I am a candidate for County Attorney of Fayette county and have qualified for said office with my name on the ballot. I am a Jeffersonian Democrat of the old school and believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

"As a Democrat, I appeal to you as chairman of the State Central Committee to save the Democratic party in Fayette county. The machine which has been stealing the primaries here for years has framed up the Democratic nomination for county officer to father the complaint against the Democratic City and County Committee concerning the primary to be held next Tuesday, J. Franklin Wallace, a candidate for County Attorney, to-day assumed the responsibility of asking Mr. Prewitt to take up the matter and mailed to Mr. Prewitt the following letter:

"Hon. Henry B. Prewitt, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, Mr. Sterling, I hereby protest against the action of the Fayette County Democratic Committee in the selection of election officers for the coming primary and the methods to be pursued at said primary. At a called meeting of Company C, of the local National Guard, the vacancy of Second Lieutenant was filled by popular vote of the company. Serg. J. E. Rink, who has been in the service several years, was the successful contestant. Several ballots had to be taken before the election was closed; as Serg. Talbert ran a very close race. The members who were nominated for the place were Serg. E. Rink, Serg. C. E. Talbert, Corp. Dishon and Corp. Radcliffe.

During the rainstorm of yesterday afternoon a bolt of lightning struck the kitchen chimney of the residence belonging to Lee Smith, who resides on the Woodsonville pike about twelve miles from Lexington. The chimney was torn down and the stove in the kitchen was demolished. The members of the family luckily escaped physical injury as all were in other parts of the building.

JUDGE ISSUES CONTEMPT RULE

Against Brand, Stoll and Chambers.

Grows Out of Controversy Over Closing Alley.

City Officials Ignore Ruling of Court.

FINALLY BROUGHT TO SENSES.

Judge Miller issued a rule yesterday afternoon against John H. Brand and C. C. Stoll, of the Board of Public Works, and John Chambers, city engineer, for their failure to obey a restraining order of the court in the case of the National Ice Cream Company, by having been granted an order restraining the City of Louisville from preventing the company from using an alley just south of Broadway, between First and Brook streets. The rule grew out of the Board of Public Works ignoring the restraining order which was granted by Judge Miller Friday afternoon. In a restraining order was amended so as to include Chief of Police Haager. It was stated that after the Board of Public Works concluded to ignore the restraining order an additional force of patrolmen were placed at the alley to prevent the National Ice Cream Company from driving teams over it. While the matter seemed trivial at first, yet it has turned out to be a case of much interest. The alley, which was constructed of vitrified brick and finished by G. W. Stoddard, contractor, last Monday, was ordered closed by the Board of Public Works for ten days in accordance with an ordinance. Before it should be opened for public use, the National Ice Cream Company, owns property fronting Broadway and does all its hauling through the alley. In question. When refused by the Board of Public Works to haul through the alley until this morning, the National Ice Cream Company filed suit at noon Friday, asking for the restraining order, which was granted by Judge Miller. The city's attorney, who is to be heard on the motion at once, but Judge Miller refused, setting 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning as time for hearing argument.

Ignores Restraining Order.

Acting on the advice Friday afternoon of City Attorney Blakey, who said that Judge Miller's order was illegal, the Board of Public Works, Chairman Barrett being out of the city, ignored the restraining order. Judge Miller was notified Friday night that the order would be ignored and that the city attorney would explain why it was ignored in court yesterday morning. City Attorney Blakey contended that the Board of Public Works was the sole judge of the matter of whether or not the alley should be used. It was also contended that Judge Miller never gave the city officials sufficient notice. At 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Huston Quinn, assistant city attorney, appeared in court, the defendants in the action being absent, but he failed to take any steps in the case. He argued for a discharge of the restraining order or to state why the order had been disobeyed by the Board of Public Works and the city engineer, Eugene B. Atkinson, attorney for the National Ice Cream Company, requested the court to issue a writ against John H. Brand, C. C. Stoll and John Chambers, city engineer, to show cause why they should not be held in contempt. The rule was issued, returnable at noon, but later the order was amended, making the contempt rules returnable at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Chief Haager Also Restrained.

In view of the fact that an extra guard of police had been stationed to guard the alley and prevent its use by the plaintiff, Attorney Atkinson asked that Mr. Quinn be held in contempt for failing to apply to Jacob Haager, chief of police. This order was granted. The members of the Board of Public Works say they simply want to enforce the law as regards building new streets and they do not think that the city should interfere and for such a trifling reason nullify an ordinance providing for the closing of a street or thoroughfare after construction until it is ready for use.

The notice of the restraining order was served on the defendants at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and as the order pertained solely to the National Ice Cream Company, he was instructed by City Attorney Blakey to comply with the order so far as the National Ice Cream Company is concerned, but to ignore the order as to the use of the alley until it is ready for use.

The application for the restraining order was in the usual terms and showed upon the sworn statement of Henry Vogt, president of the National Ice Cream Company, that the use of his company was practically at a standstill because he could not get into the alley. The city engineer, by loading his horses over his neighbor's yards. The wagons were lined along Brook street without protection unless specially guarded.

The alley had been completed and accepted by the city. The city also had a contract with G. W. Stoddard, contractor who built the alley, that he will keep it in repair for five years. Such a contract is a city satisfaction and before his contract was accepted.

Recognizing the contract relations between Gossnell and the city, Judge Miller declined to do anything that would impair these rights; but as Gossnell had filed his written consent with the petition, agreeing and requesting that the alley be opened, the city could not possibly be injured in its contract, it is said.

But before the restraining order was to become effective Judge Miller, in order to further protect the city, required the plaintiff to give the city a further bond, which was done.

Telephoned To Judge Miller.

Shortly after the order was served on yesterday afternoon Mr. Quinn, of the city, telephoned to Judge Miller at his residence and asked if he could try the case at once. It is said that it was impracticable to try the original application.

is of such importance that it must ignore the courts and thereby endanger a spirit of lawlessness merely in order to have an own way. It is said, it does not seem to realize that the question can arise once only, and that the trial of this case will settle the rights of the people and of the board in this respect, as to all future cases.

The attorney for the ice cream company said last night that so much as the city officials and police have at last obeyed Judge Miller's order relative to the alley, and are permitting the teams of the company to use the alley, he is satisfied, and on Tuesday will move that the rule for contempt issued against city officials be withdrawn.

FOURTH AVENUE CHOR FOR MUSERGIA CLUB.
Will Give Concert at Plymouth Church For the Colored People of Louisville.

The Musergia Club, the leading musical organization among the colored people of Louisville, has been striving hard to advance good music and to cultivate a better musical taste among their people for the past three years. The club has two years some of the most advanced musicians of the colored race have been brought to Louisville. The club has been singing in its festivals, and it will do the same thing again for its concert at the Plymouth Church, under the direction of William R. Hamilton. The club made a new departure this season which it hopes to keep up and thereby still further the advancement in good music.

On April 23 Prof. John Surman gave at Plymouth Church, under the direction of William R. Hamilton, a concert of the Musergia Club. The concert was highly appreciated. To-morrow night, the Musergia Club will give a concert at the Plymouth Church, under the direction of William R. Hamilton. The club made a new departure this season which it hopes to keep up and thereby still further the advancement in good music.

Rule Returnable Tuesday.
After hearing the arguments of counsel, Judge Miller issued the contempt rule for the defendants named in the motion to answer on Tuesday, that being the next regular court day, and sustained the new motion for an injunction upon the execution of a bond to the city in the sum of $2,500 to cover any possible damage.

The Board of Public Works takes the ground that it is the sole judge of whether the alley of the city shall be opened or closed, either for a week or for a year. Mr. Blakey made that the city engineer, by loading his horses over his neighbor's yards. The wagons were lined along Brook street without protection unless specially guarded.

Hard To Understand.

Many people are unable to understand the extreme position of the Board of Public Works in this and in similar matters. If the alley will be ready to open in a few days, as the board contends, it is difficult to see how the city can be materially injured by opening it now. It is said, and if it should be damaged to any extent the bond given in the case is ample protection.

In the meantime the law question can be tried in an orderly way, as it has been tried once and for all time. That is the usual way; but the Board of Public Works seems to think this little alley

FOUR LIONS

Of Course You Know that the celebrated QUICK MEAL GAS RANGE has the reputation of being the very best, and that there are many good reasons for it.

GEHER & SON
215 Market St., Near Second.

Now Going After Giraffes.

Nairobi, British East Africa, May 1.—Four lions are trophies of ex-President Roosevelt's camp in the Mau hills in Kenya, and the 200 or more native followers are joining with the American party in the celebration of their unusual good luck.

The lions were bagged yesterday, and Col. Roosevelt's mighty gun, brought from the States, did more of the greater part of the day. It was a great feat with his camera than he did with his gun. The other members of the party allowing Mr. Roosevelt to take the pictures.

Details of the actual shooting were not brought down to Nairobi to-day from the camp. It was reported that in each case a single bullet from the ex-President's rifle sufficed to bring down his lion. From what it is reported that Col. Roosevelt is living up to the reputation which he has gained here of being a crack shot. All of the lions were of normal size and after the natives had executed the usual dance around the trophies.

Going After Giraffes.

The party plans to go South to-morrow for the hope of bagging one or more giraffes. The chances are Mr. Roosevelt's good luck will continue, for natives and settlers from all sections report game as very plentiful.

IN MAJORITY

Predicted For Democrats In Next Lower House.

REPUBLICANS WILL FALL DOWN ON TARIFF PROMISES.

CONGRESSMAN DIXON, OF INDI-ANA, SEES BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

PROPHESIES OF HEIMBERGER.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 1.—[Special.]—Congressman Lincoln Dixon, of North Vernon, representing the Third district in Congress, who was in Indianapolis to-day to call upon Burt New, legal clerk to Gov. Marshall, and a next-door neighbor to Dixon when the two are at home, sees the political horizon bright for a Democratic majority in the Lower House when the lawmakers convene after the election of 1910. The tariff question, which is now agitating the country, will be responsible for the majority, according to Dixon.

Progress of Tariff Bill.

"I do not believe that Congress will be able to whip the tariff bill into such form that it will be satisfactory to the people," said Mr. Dixon. "The people, Democrats and Republicans, want the tariff revised downward. They said so when they elected their Congressmen, whether they be Republican or Democratic Congressmen. The Republican who voted to send a Republican to Congress believed that he would work and vote for a revision downward, else he would not have voted for him. He believed the promise of the candidate when the candidate told him that he was for tariff revision, and he believed further that he meant revision downward, as it was so plain to the voter that that was the only kind of a revision which could be considered acceptable at all that he believed the candidate must see the tariff question as he saw it."

But when the Republicans went to Washington they fell into the same rut as concerns tariff as they have been occupying for year after year. It was so natural to try to revise the tariff upward that it seems they could not even think of revising it in the other direction, except in the case of the insurgents, and there were only a few of them.

Aldrich Bill Not Satisfactory.

"The Aldrich bill will be passed, of course, but it will not be a satisfactory bill. It can't be made satisfactory to the people. In the first place, it is too late. The bill has advanced too far for any revision downward. In the second place, the powers in control of the situation will not permit it to be revised any way except upward. When the thing becomes a law it will be one of the most unpopular ever forced upon the American people, and they will say so. I am certain, when it comes to electing their Congressmen next year, the people will be determined to have the tariff readjusted in their interests instead of having it fixed up to suit a favored few, and if this Congress doesn't do as they wish it done they will send men to Washington who will do it. The Republicans have been given a chance after chance to make good, and have failed every time, until the people are tired of their foolishness."

Candidates For Re-election.

Dixon will be a candidate for re-election, and thus far no opposition to him has arisen in the district, as far as he has been able to discover. The district is safely Democratic, and the Republican who goes into the race against Dixon has not even a faint hope of being able to take the place from the present holder.

Congressman William E. Cox, of the Third district, will have opposition for the re-election in the person of George Voight, of Jeffersonville. It is understood. Words have reached Indianapolis to the effect that Voight, who is a lawyer in Jeffersonville, is now engaged in feeling the political pulse of the district in an effort to ascertain whether or not the rank and file of the Democrats would like to substitute him for Cox, and as the result of his inquiries he has found that the Democrats will support him. Voight is highly respected among the Democrats of his district, and is able, it is reported, to create considerable stir should he determine to go after Cox in earnest.

Heimberger: An Old Fox.

Adam Heimberger, of New Albany, vice chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, who is a close personal friend of Gov. Marshall and a frequent caller at the latter's office, believes that the Democrats will be able to control a majority of the next General Assembly without extraordinary effort. Heimberger is one of the shrewdest politicians in the State, and what he has to say carries considerable weight with the Democrats of Hoosierdom. He bases his belief largely upon the fact that Gov. Marshall is making an excellent Governor and is instituting a number of reforms in the State government which are certain to meet with the approval of the voters and to make votes for the Democratic ticket when it is launched in 1910.

Heimberger takes a great deal of personal pride in the record of United States Senator Shively has started in to make in Washington and expects great things of the Indiana statesman when the tariff issues once get fairly under way in the Upper House. Heimberger's district, the Third, always sends a solid delegation of Democrats to the General Assembly, and Heimberger claims that it was this delegation which, by its constant hammering, aided Shively over the dangerous ground in the Democratic caucus and eventually landed him in Jim Hemenway's place.

Without a Candidate.

Indianapolis is still without a candidate for Mayor, on either the Democratic or Republican ticket, although the time for holding the city primaries cannot be a great many weeks off. Tom Taggart, who is generally believed to be the man ultimately to name the Democratic candidate, was in the city three days this week and held a number of conferences with the leading Democrats of the city, but if Taggart told them who should be nominated that fact has not yet been made public by any of Taggart's conferees. The belief, common a few weeks ago, that Taggart himself will be the nominee, has lost ground. The belief now prevails that none of the names thus far presented will be the ultimate choice of the parties.

BUSILY REHEARSING FOR "BACK TO TOWN."

Musical Chatter Promises To Attract Large Audiences To Macauley's Theater.

Interest in the Mackin Council Choral Club's new production, "Back to Town," a musical chatter by Aulyn E. Kanston, will be presented at Macauley's Theater

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, May 19, 20 and 21, and Saturday matinee, May 22, continues to grow. Rehearsals are being had almost nightly and the cast and chorus are practically ready for the final orchestra and dress rehearsals. The drilling and singing of the chorus have become nearly perfect. The cast promises to be so well prepared that they could easily be mistaken for professionals. Although it is more than two weeks before the initial performance of "Back to Town," both M. Kanston and Carl Zang, the musical director, claim the company could be ready for the stage within a few days. Indications are that "Back to Town" will be seen by packed houses and in order to accommodate all who desire to see the new play an extra performance, in addition to the usual three performances, has been arranged for and the management announces positively that there will be no repetition after the original four performances.

Seats go on sale at Macauley's box-office Monday, May 17. Following is the cast for "Back to Town": Virginia, Miss Stella Casaden. Tricie, Miss Hattie E. Hoffman. Snooks, Miss Louella Whitton. JEALOUS. (Puck.) I wish your face might homely grow, And marked with lines of care, And all the rosy, youthful glow, Might leave your cheek so fair. I wish that threads of gray and white Your lustrous hair might shade, Your eyes might lose their winsome light, Your sweetest charms might fade. For all of that—so strange, but true—My cup of joy would fill, For no one else would care for you, And I should love you still!

CHICKEN WITH A PEDIGREE GETS SLAUGHTERED.

THE NEW D. A. R. PRESIDENT.

(Special Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.)

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—"How much have you lost?" Two pounds, how much have you lost? "O Tempora! O Mores!" It used to be, "What was your last score? How many pounds did you make yesterday at the bridge club?"

The Adipose Club of Louisville is all taking vapor baths and promulgating walking parties. Some few are gardening for the sake of results, which is, to quote a Japanese student, "To have a sinfulness."

At the adjournment of a certain fashionable bridge club the other day, when the members came down the stairs in those tube-like coats and "peach basket" hats, a lady standing in her doorway remarked, with no malice in her tones: "If you all don't look like those wooden figures in a Noah's Ark."

Then she threw up her hands in horror and said, "Oh, I do beg your pardon, Mrs. Blank, I thought you were Mrs. Blank. I couldn't see your face, you know, in that monstrosity of a hat."

"Do you know," that wench continued, looking quizzically after the Noah's Ark figures, "I suppose that no one will ever be allowed to have a good, comfortable middle-aged back any more."

And it doesn't seem likely that there will, with all these vapor baths, massages, waxes and "banning" that the Adipose Club indulges in to avoid that which our grandmothers thought quite respectable—a good, comfortable, middle-aged back.

A Chicken With a Pedigree.

If the printer should make the same mistake that he did shortly after the

Adipose Club was organized and call them the "Lovers Club," which is a very different thing, we shall not be "take up the matter" with the adipose printer. If that handsome set of medallions, which were entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. J.

B. Hendricks and Mrs. J. A. Posey at the home of Mrs. Hendricks, "The Terrace," didn't last all through last Friday afternoon pray tell me what you would call it? It was impossible to do such a thing. The parlors were rioting in boughs of "red bud," yellow roses and lilacs of the valley were everywhere and the room full of salinity and lacy gowns and picture hats.

A few clung to the early tradition of the club and wore the strings of their silk work bags around their wrists, but the majority came out boldly for emancipation and threw them aside.

Miss Pauline Hendricks, the little 13-year-old daughter of the house, was bribed, coaxed and coerced into showing her skill on the brand new grand

Schubert, that has been recently become a part of the household.

The special feature of the afternoon was the appearance of the delicious lunch—delicious is a very much overworked word, yet no other could so aptly describe this.

It ought to have been delicious considering—and I tell it for the benefit of those who did not know it, didn't

the club deliberately and with malice forethought contrive one of its

Posey's blooded roosters and serve him

a la chicken croquette.

A chicken of "blue blood" and a

"family tree" that has four silver cups to prove its aristocratic descent from the "Plymouth Rock."

Did you know that Mrs. Posey's prize chicken had been killed? Whispered one Lottor to another, as that woman was about to sip her mocha.

"You don't tell me," was the whispered reply. "What killed it?"

"It was murdered to make a Lottor's holiday and you have eaten it."

In the laughter that followed the cup was spilled of its contents and a new freak was ruined. Yet some people say: "How can the Lottor have a good time when they neither dance nor play cards?"

For the "Newly Weds."

It makes the hearts of the old-time housekeepers green with envy to see the modern Mr. and Mrs. Newly Weds settle down in a nest of their own

Nowadays when a popular couple marry they are supplied with most of the nice things for their home—especially the dining room and kitchen furniture. "Showers" are distinctly a later-day invention.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. E.

Settle gave Mr. and Mrs. Arch Dunlap

a "kitchen shower" at her home on Second street.

It was also a tea. The tea and the wafers served were both delicious, but the "shower" was the feature of the afternoon.

The closest friends and relatives only were invited, and each was requested to bring an appropriate verse along with his or her present.

The house was tastefully decorated with flags, red buds and yellow blowsoms, making a most bewildering array of color. These were arranged in brass jardinières and low bowls of silver.

For Miss Mary Belle Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hamilton, of Hill Crest, their beautiful summer home on the Tate Creek road, gave

Miss Mary Belle Taylor, of this city,

Miss Mary Belle Taylor, of New York, and Miss Mary Brewster Stucky, of Louisville, a delightful bridge party.

The large hall and all the lower floor were decorated with apple blowsoms, bleeding hearts, bridal wreaths and other flowers in red and white.

After the game a sumptuous lunch-

oon was served to about forty guests.

New D. A. R. President.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, the new D.

A. R. president, was before her marriage Miss Julia Green. She is the daughter of the late Dr. Lewis Green, one of Kentucky's most distinguished educators, and was at one time president of Centre College.

Her husband was Mr. Matthew T.

Scott, of Lexington, who came to be known as the coal king. He owned great coal estates in Illinois. Mrs.

Scott has places in Louisville and was entertained by them last week.

She is counted a remarkable woman

in many ways and regarded as an ideal president of the organization, that elected her to the position. Her memory for names and faces is not the least of the facilities that form wonderful assets in her public life.

Automobile Party From Louisville.

Juniper Hill, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Berry, was gay on Saturday last with fifteen guests from Louisville who came up in their own handsome touring cars and had luncheon with the Berries.

Mid the weather permitted the luncheon would have been served in the beautiful grounds surrounding this estate and overlooking the city of Frankfort. As it was the luncheon was held in the dining room, which is

Sale of Low Shoes

Representing the Most Select Grades of American Shoemaking.

The Low Shoe selling season to date has been one of great activity in our Shoe section, and in keeping with our fixed policy the natural accumulation of small lots, scattered sizes and discontinued styles must be disposed of.

For this sale very elegant Street Ties, values from $3.50 to $6.00, ARE TO BE SOLD AT THE FOLLOWING REDUCED PRICES:

$6.00 Low Shoes of various models and popular leathers at $4.85
$5.00 Street Ties and Low Effects, mostly all leather in this lot, at $3.85
$3.50 and $4.00 former values, embracing many most desirable models, at $2.85

It is important to state that the range of sizes and widths must necessarily be limited in a sale of this kind—and accordingly do not specify all sizes and widths in all the styles. WE URGE EARLY FORENOON BUYING.

the dining-room. Baked hams, chicken and all the delicious entrees peculiar to country hospitality were set before the delighted guests.
The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Alexander McLehman of Louisville. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the guests returned to Louisville. They numbered Mrs. Alexander McLehman, Mrs. Henrietta White, Maurice Bridges, Isabel McLehman, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, Edith Campbell, Emily P. Menzies, Mary Lee Hickman and Miss Layton; Messrs. John McLehman, Preston Barker, Hanson Thomas, Alexander Robinson, Robert Irvine and George Allen Bush.

Present For Miss Cox.

One of the handsomest presents ever given a bride in Kentucky was the massive silver service that the State Administration presented to Miss Roberta Cox, who last Thursday became the bride of the Rev. Earl Wheat, of St. Louis.

Everybody holding office in the present administration contributed, as Miss Cox and her father, Lieut. Gov. W. H. Cox, and wife, are popular here. The present is in the form of a silver service of six pieces and was sent with the best wishes of the administration to the bride. The silver is engraved with the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

"Commonwealth of Kentucky [Seal] Compliment of the Members of the State Administration To Miss Roberta Cox."

Among the visitors to Mayville to attend the wedding festivities was Mrs. John H. Smith, of Louisville, who was highly complimented on her gracefulness and gorgeous wardrobe. She was one of Miss Cox's most intimate friends here and was a frequent visitor to the home of the bride and groom. Mrs. Smith will return to the city of the West on Monday. The bride and groom were most beloved and popular.

Compass Club.

Mrs. A. C. VanWinkle entertained the Compass Club last Wednesday afternoon. After the usual business session, she served her guests with a delectable salad course. The house was decorated with splendid colored tulips.

The top table was set by Mrs. VanWinkle and Mrs. Rogers Clay.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

The family and a few intimate friends of Mrs. W. S. Farmer surprised her last Thursday by having a delicious luncheon for herself and husband. Mrs. Farmer was called from home to make calls and upon her return was presented with numerous presents by the members of her household and invited into a delicious course luncheon.

Whereabouts of Kentuckians.

Mrs. T. F. Paynter, and son, Mr. Pollock Paynter, have returned from Washington. They will go later to the Pacific coast to spend the summer. Mrs. Cornelia Bush is spending the next three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stone Bush at "Kenwood." Miss Mary Ann Magle, Barr, of Lebanon, are the guests of their brother, Dr. Joe Barr, and wife, Mrs. Barr, who are in the city. By invitation of the Woman's Literary Club of Shelbyville, which is devoting this season to the study of Kentucky writers, Miss Leigh Gordon Gilmer read before its members on the afternoon of the twentieth an original short story entitled "The Sporting Spirit," which appeared some years since in Munsey, and an appreciation of the poetry of Madison Cawthon, with selections from the author's most characteristic poems. Mrs. Gilmer was the guest of honor at an informal reception and tea following the club's programme.

Telegrams of congratulation have been sent to the bride and groom by Jack Jennings, Greenleaf, of Richmond, on the birth of a lovely little daughter, Margaret Burnham. Mrs. Greenleaf was formerly the wife of a Kentucky writer. Miss Sarah Burnham, who resided here for several years, whose father was on the opposite bank.

Miss Allen Crockett, who has been spending several months with relatives in Washington and Baltimore, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pepper, and daughter, Miss Laura, left Wednesday for Salt Lake City to visit Lieut. Frederick Geodeke and Mrs. Geodeke. Mr. S. A. Mrs. Geodeke was formerly Miss May Pepper.

Mrs. William P. Hudson and son, Hugh, of Eastover Park, is the guest of Mrs. George Baker on West Main street for a few days.

Lovers of Nature

Will be more than pleased to learn of the increased facilities for patrons to Silver Hills. The company has increased the number of their cars and added in every way possible to their service.

The cars now leave the new station on Third street, near Walnut, going west on Jefferson street, crossing the Kentucky and Indiana Bridge, which has been arranged to permit a perfect view of the Ohio River. Reaching Daisy Station, you change for the Silver Hills cars, which run almost straight through the center of New Albany and ascend the hill. The park and reservoir have been beautified—seats to rest and enjoy the views. No more enchanting scenery can be found.

Returning from the hill, you can come through Jeffersonville to complete the circuit of the three Falls Cities. These cars will take you past beautiful Glenwood Park, on Silver Creek, where boating, bathing and fishing are all enjoyed. Then on through the country, passing Midway and Howard Park, going up the incline above the households of Jeffersonville onto the Big Four Bridge, affording a perfect view of this North Side city, and back to the same depot in Louisville. No more delightful outing Sunday afternoon can be found for 25c than this trip. Cars leave every fifteen minutes.

MAGNIFICENT ART GALLERY ESTABLISHED BY PIUS X, NOW OPEN TO ALL VISITORS

Consists of Eight Large Halls and Walls Are Hung With Green Watered Silk.

[Contributed by International Catholic Truth Society.]

New York, May 1.—Pius X, in establishing the magnificent new art gallery just opened to visitors in the Vatican, has again emphasized the unbroken tradition which shows us the art of Rome, through the ages, as the enthusiastic patron of art and the loyal friend and encourager of the true artist. The gallery in the Vatican had,

for some time past, outgrown its quarters. The surroundings were poorly suited to set off properly the works of art stored there, and many precious masterpieces were hidden away in storerooms or parts of the Vatican, inaccessible to lovers of art. Pius gathered about him

Seitz, the painter; Schneider, the architect; Manucci, the engineer. He appointed them as a committee, under Mgr. Masiacelli, Sub-Prefect of the Apostolic Palace; he listened carefully to their suggestions, examined their plans and approved them. The result is the splendid art gallery which he has just solemnly inaugurated in the presence of the Papal court, the ambassadors accredited to the Holy See and a few other privileged persons.

The new gallery consists of eight large halls. The windows look out upon the great Belvedere court; the walls are hung with green watered silk; the vaults are adorned with beautifully modeled stuccoes in the "cinqucento" style; a perfect system of screens regulates the light, and the whole aspect of the place is monumental, chaste and solemn.

The various halls illustrate the growth of the painter's art from one period to another. The first contains numerous triptychs and polyptychs of the Florentine, Siennese and Bolognese masters of the fourteenth century. The second shows the advance made in the technique of painting under Fra Angelico, Melozzo da Forlì, and a host of other great painters. The third hall contains the work of the sixteenth century, the work of the great masters of the Baroque, the work of the great masters of the eighteenth century, and reaches its apogee in the great works of Perugino, Raphael and Giovanni Santa.

The remaining halls, forming the left wing of the gallery, are devoted to the paintings of the Venetians, the seventeenth century painters, and the works of foreign painters. The latter include a beautiful Florentine triptych, recently discovered; and a portrait of George IV., painted by Lawrence and presented to Pius XI.

Untiring Zeal.

Father Kelley, president of the Extension Society, overtaxed his strength in his herculean efforts in building up the society and in arranging the magnificent Missionary Congress recently held in Chicago. To ward off a threatened complete physical breakdown he was induced to visit Rome to recuperate and to take needed recreation.

But with characteristic zeal he has utilized his vacation to get into touch with Catholic agencies for immigration in Europe, and he is perfecting a complete system of co-operation between these agencies and the new bureau of colonization that is about to be established by the Extension Society at its headquarters in the Rookery, Chicago, as one outcome of the Missionary Congress. This will make necessary enlarging, for the third time since its organization, the general offices of the society.

Father Kelley states that the great railroad and land companies of the United States are already pledging the entire expense of maintenance of the new bureau, hoping thereby to get intelligent service in directing settlers as to where they will find churches, schools and companionship of their own nationality. These settlers will thus be kept under Catholic guidance whilst becoming accustomed to American life and customs and methods of Government.

Composer of Church Music.
Father Hartmann's magnificent oratorio, "The Seven Last Words of Christ on the Cross," just presented in Chicago, for the benefit of the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor, has brought into prominence another composer and interpreter of church music, the Rev.
William J. Finn, the Paulist father.

His famous chorister society, composed of 150 surprised boys and young men, who gave the oratorio on this occasion, had already delighted all who heard their perfect presentation of the most difficult products of musical genius which the great masters have offered to the world.

Father Finn has in his chorister society some of the greatest, purest voices that ever thrilled a note. An enthusiastic admirer declares that the almost divine charm of their brilliant tones and the childlike unconsciousness of an extraordinary gift, imparts to the music an effect which goes directly to the soul.

Five of these boys created a musical sensation in Washington last year, and they received a special invitation to the White House, where they gave some of their choice music before the President and his Cabinet. Mr. Roosevelt and every member of the Cabinet personally and most cordially congratulated the boys and Father Finn, their director, on the exquisite quality of their voices and their perfect mastery of the technique. Father Finn has a peculiar aptitude for discovering latent talent and developing it to the utmost perfection.

The oratorio is dedicated by Father Hartmann, the composer, to the King of Spain. It was produced for the first time at Bamberg on October 11, 1928, before a distinguished audience, including many high dignitaries of church and State. Competent critics declare it a gem of purest art, and have lauded
it to the skies.

Catholic Periodical.
There is something very suggestive and deeply significant in the launching, last month, of a new Catholic periodical by the Jesuits, entitled "America." In this country the Society of Jesus has, from the first, been identified with learning and science. Their early explorations, their efforts for the conversion and civilization of the native aborigines, form an important chapter in the history of America, while their famous college at Georgetown has played an important part in the educational development of the country since the founding of the Republic. And now they are founding a literary enterprise, which it is proposed to make in every way worthy of its name, "America."

The desirability of such a review has long been urged by members of the hierarchy and of the laity, and privately and publicly. The object of the review is "to gather into one central publication a record of Catholic achievement, and a defense of Catholicism, built up by skillful hands in every part of the globe." The title embraces both North and South America, in fact, the entire Western Hemisphere. Already a host of information have been established in leading cities of Europe, Mexico, Central and South America, which will supply prompt and correct information concerning Catholic interests. It is to be a weekly, and containing the commonplace character of its contents, it is expected to prove attractive to non-Catholics as well as Catholics. The editor-in-chief is the Rev. John Wynne, S. J., associate editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia.

Internationalization.
The editor of "Rome," who has a well-deserved reputation for accuracy in his news items, says there can be no doubt that in the future, the tendency towards internationalization in the Sacred College will be further developed.
For instance, it is an open question says, "that before long the United States will, as a rule, have two, and perhaps three, cardinals; that England also will have two; that Germany, that France, in the near future, may have three instead of two cardinals; and at present, that Canada, too, may supply a member of the Senate of the Church—in which it has had no place since the death of Cardinal Tascher-eau."

"The Cardinal Work."
Cardinal Gotti, Prefect of the Propaganda in Rome, one of the ablest and most famous members of the Sacred College, reached his seventy-fifth birthday the other day. Except for receiving the casual congratulations of some of his ecclesiastical colleagues, he allowed the day to pass unnoticed. In accordance with the austere and simple life of the Carmelite Order, of which he is a member. Many well-informed Catholics had believed that he would be the successor of Leo XIII. Yet his private life is very modest.

Although he lives in a palace, he is still the barefooted monk, at least in spirit. His sleeping apartment is refined like that in which he slept during the years when he was an ascetic student; and he uses no display, save that which is positively imposed by the rules regulating the life of a cardinal.
He well deserves the title of "The Cardinal Monk."

FOUR SETS OF TWINS BORN NEAR EACH OTHER IN BUTLER COUNTY AND PHYSICIAN WHO OFFICIATED AT THEIR BIRTH

The physician is Dr. J. W. Grubb, of Loganport, who officiated at the birth of all of the youngsters. The remarkable feature is that all were born within a radius of five miles within the last five years, the last three within one year.
The two on the doctor's left, on cushion, are 8 months old, and are children of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harrell.
The two on the doctor's right, on cushion, are 6 months old, and are children of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McKenney.
The two in the doctor's lap are 10 weeks old, and are children of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Russ.

DEBT-RAISING CAMPAIGN OF BAPTISTS HAS BEEN CROWNED WITH RARE SUCCESS

Sum of $200,000 Raised To Wipe Out Old Obligations—Others Less Fortunate.

The debt-raising campaign which has been carried on for several months for the three missionary societies of the Baptist Church, the American Baptist Missionary Union, the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the American Baptist Publication Society, has been crowned with success. The sum of $200,000 has been raised to wipe out the old indebtedness, and at the same time contributions for the work of the current year have been increased, so that these societies begin their new fiscal year with small treasury balances. Details of the success of the $200,000 have not been made public, but it is being whispered that a certain prominent Baptist layman has been crowned with success. The sum of $200,000 has been raised to wipe out the old indebtedness, and at the same time contributions for the work of the current year have been increased, so that these societies begin their new fiscal year with small treasury balances. Details of the success of the $200,000 have not been made public, but it is being whispered that a certain prominent Baptist layman has been crowned with success.

Some of the Congregational missionary organizations are conducting a joint campaign for the purpose of raising their debts, and they have secured for this purpose, up to the present time, about $100,000. Some of the gifts conditioned, however, upon the raising of a much larger sum, so that the success of the campaign cannot yet be predicted.
Among all the missionary organizations of the larger religious bodies of America, it is said by leaders that the Congregationalists are suffering most from financial shortage. The Baptist societies have gotten out of debt, and the Presbyterian Home Board is said to have a small debt. The Methodist boards are reporting increased contributions. The Episcopal Board of Missions is said to be running rapidly behind, but it does not close its year until next fall and present figures are of little value as an indication of conditions. This board has suffered, however, a great loss in the death of its treasurer, George C. Thomas, a man who was a wise administrator as well as a large personal giver.

Church Union.
A recent decision of the Tennessee courts has renewed discussion among church leaders regarding church union.
Up to this time, practically all the higher courts have held valid the union between the Presbyterian Church and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and they have continued the united church in the possession of property formerly held by the Cumberland Church. But the Tennessee court holds the contrary opinion, supporting in large measure the contention of the present Cumberland Church, which is composed of those who have refused to agree to the union, that the union was illegal and the church property should be held by those faithful to the old Cumberland body. It is said to be possible that the matter may now find its way to the United States supreme court, and a final ruling which will also govern all the States in which there is disputed church property.

There is, therefore, possible in this country, in the opinion of leaders, a condition similar to that which recently existed in Scotland as the result of the church union, where the Parliament had to step in, and by the enactment of new acts, straightened out a tangle of rules of equity which were in some measure different from the established law of Great Britain. In Scotland a mere remnant of the old Free Church held under the law property which it was absolutely unable to administer, owning church buildings in which it could not maintain services. So aggravated a condition, it is said, is not possible in the present controversy between the Presbyterians and the Cumberland Presbyterian Churches, although in essence the situation would be the same if the United States courts upheld the contention of the opponents of the union.

The present situation is such as to discourage present movements looking toward church union, for it is agreed in all denominations that unanimous action could never be secured in such movements. There will always be malcontents, and they might, if the Tennessee interpretation of the law is held, block union movements. At the present time leaders in the Congregational Church are congratulating themselves that the proposed movement toward union with the United Brethren and the Methodist Protestants has been abandoned, and they are now concerned in the union movement with the Congregationalists. There are now heard no regrets that negotiations came to an unsuccessful conclusion. The United Brethren are saying that no union movement would now be favored by their people, and the Methodist Protestants are negotiating with the Methodist Episcopal Church, a body with which they have much more in common than they had with Congregationalists. But the practically all religious bodies there are leaders who are talking union with one denomination or another, but it seems to be generally understood that they are unable to deliver the goods."

Interesting Figure.
Canon Hensley Henson, of Westminster Abbey, who has just come from England to deliver the Yale lecture on preaching, is an interesting figure to all church leaders because he has recently violated what is considered to be a rigid law of the Anglican Church. He was invited to speak in a Congregational hall in Birmingham, England, and accepted the invitation.
But the vicar of the Anglican parish, within whose bounds the Congregational place of worship is situated, objected to the bishop, holding that a clergyman of the Church of England could not speak within the bounds of another parish without the consent of the incumbent. Bishop Gore asked Canon Henson to refrain from speaking, but the canon replied that he had accepted the invitation and intended to keep the appointment. He did keep it, and it is the present belief that he will have to face trial on his return to England. For very those who see no real objection to an Anglican clergyman speaking in a nonconformist chapel feel that the time-honored rights of the incumbent of a parish must be vindicated. Practically the same right is said to exist in this country, so far as the Episcopal Church is concerned, and the English episode is therefore the object of great interest here.

FIRE LOSSES.

Total Figures For Present Year Mounting High

ANNUAL DAMAGE MUCH HIGHER THAN IN EUROPE.

BUILDING MATERIAL TESTS MADE BY UNCLE SAM.

REPORT SOON TO BE MADE.

Federal experts who are making a study of building materials that will withstand fire, and who are therefore, taking a keen interest in the fire losses as they are reported for the entire country, declare that, in spite of all efforts toward better building conditions, the death and destruction due to fires and conflagrations in 1908 will eclipse all previous records, with the exception of the years in which the Baltimore and San Francisco fires occurred, says the Washington Post.

They point to the fact that in sixteen days of April, five big fires in different parts of the United States resulted in a loss of $5,000,000. The greatest of these fires was at Fort Worth, Tex., resulting in a property loss of between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000, and the second in importance was at Rochester, N. Y., with a loss of $200,000.

The people of the United States have not learned the lesson of the Baltimore and San Francisco fires," said Richard L. Humphrey, engineer in charge of the structural material laboratories of the United States geological survey. Fort Worth's recent experience, when more than 200 homes were destroyed by the flames is but a repetition of what has happened in the past and what will occur in the future until American municipalities take to the situation and enact legislation which will absolutely prevent the further construction of buildings that are not fireproof.

It seems difficult to make the people believe that in 1907, fires in the United States cost more than a million and a quarter dollars for every day in the year, an annual tax of more than $2 for every man, woman and child in the country. We are spending a billion dollars a year on new buildings and construction work, while our fires cost half a billion dollars. No other nation has such an unfavorable record as this.

Our fires are costing from six to eight times as much per capita as any country in Europe. By the total cost of fires, I refer not only to the actual destruction of property, which amounted to $255,000,000, but also to the cost of maintenance of fire departments and the amount of insurance paid over and above the money returned to reimburse owners of buildings.

"While we are wasting several times as much property per capita as Europe, we are also destroying in these five times as many lives as are lost in the other countries. In 1906, according to the United States census, 6,900 persons died of burns, and perhaps 10,000 were seriously injured.

"No other country suffers such enormous conflagration losses as does the United States, and it is this class of loss, due to the rapidity with which fires spread, involving whole blocks and cities, that require attention. In spite of the most efficient fire departments in the world, for which American cities are celebrated, and in spite of an abundant water supply, all human efforts are powerless when once a fire gets under considerable headway, where inflammable and time-consuming construction prevails, with the result that in every city and village in the United States there is ever present the possibility of large loss of life and property.

"The Federal Government is directly interested in this question, because it is the owner of buildings valued at more than $500,000,000 which are not insured and is spending more than $20,000,000 each year for new structures. This building and construction work is all intended to be of a permanent nature. It involves interests of such magnitude that the Government can afford to take no risks concerning either the methods of construction or the materials to be used. It is, therefore, necessary that its architects and engineers have definite information concerning the fire-resisting qualities of the different materials of construction, to the end that the Government's buildings may be properly safeguarded from fire within and without.

Government Fire Tests.

"Carrying out this idea, the geological survey, through its technologic branch, some time ago completed a series of preliminary fire tests of building materials, which will now be printed by the Government in the form of a bulletin. The building materials were placed in a furnace where gas flames were forced by a blast of air against one side of them. After two hours, in which each material was heated to the point expected in a conflagration it was removed from the furnace and the water turned on from a hose to get the conditions which obtain after the firemen begin their work.

"The conditions under which these tests were made were unusually severe, and as none of the materials passed perfectly, it proved a good test for comparative purposes. The tests are not in any way conclusive, being the first of an extended series of investigations, but they point out the weaknesses of the different materials."

CIRCUS DAY COMING; SMALL BOY IS GOOD.

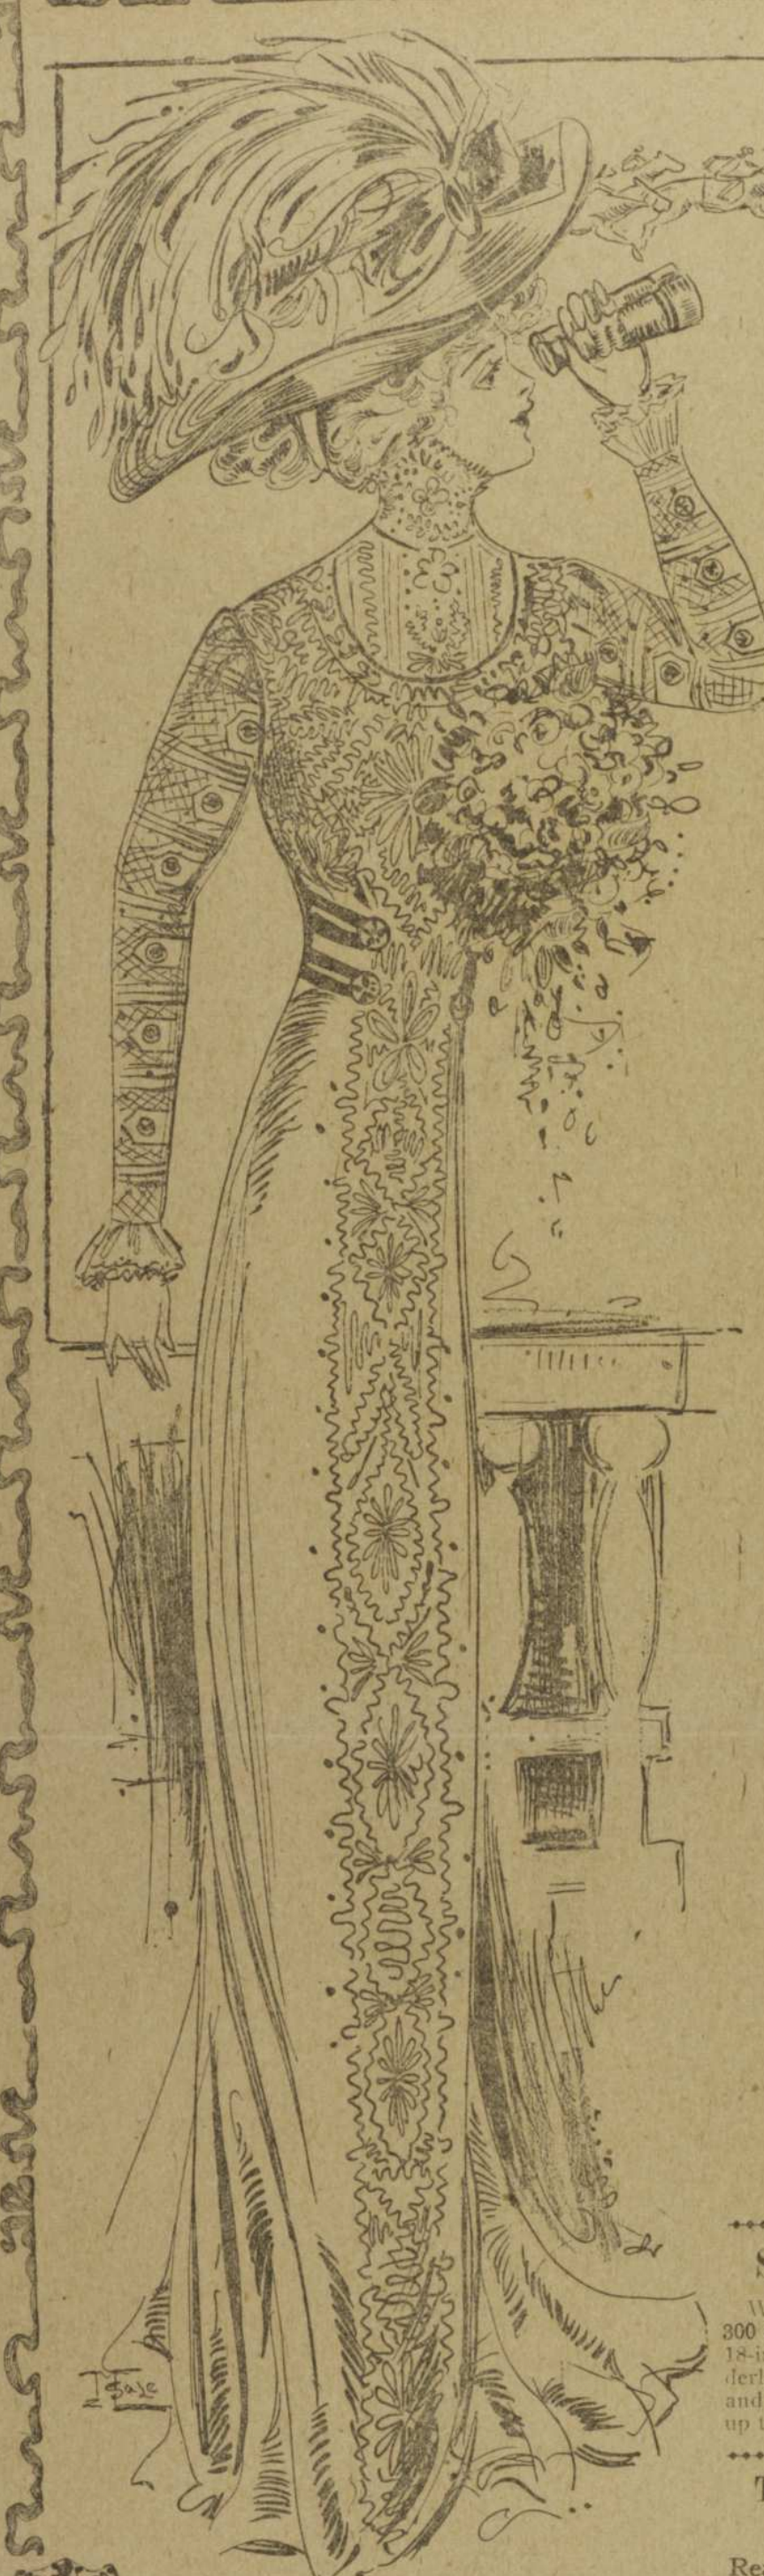

Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show On Earth To Be In Louisville May 15.

Circus day is fast approaching and the small boy is on his best behavior. It is not that his mother is wise to his methods his angelic goodness would give her some concern. She knows that it is working to get to see "that circus." For that matter mother herself wants to see it. Father has been homesick, but it is only to see that his family is not Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth is to be in Louisville May 15, when it will unfold its myriad of wonders on all portions of the universe. The principal story at present is: Are you going to see the circus? The answer given is to the belief that show day will give the greatest pleasure to people that has ever been known here. There is every reason to expect this. The promises held forth are simply more and more come from the circus which has never in over half a century broken faith with the people. There is nothing in it, in the statement that the present Barnum & Bailey circus is the greatest of all time, departments the highest perfection of excellence. It has surpassed Europe in its search for wonderful acts and feats. The performance is one of infinite variety, containing many acts the mere description of which takes more time than the actual performance.

Every regard is held for the comfort of the people on the show grounds. The night tent will seat 1,500 people comfortably. The tents are all new and of the most waterproof canvas. A magic touch seems to have been placed over the circus city.

The parade to be given by the Greatest Show on Earth will furnish a glorious prelude to the circus itself. It will include a lion and tigers, magnificent charades and floats will be drawn by hand, some horses, there will be many cages showing strange wild animals and there will be a lion tamer, which will cause the youngsters to shout with glee.

Thousands of visitors are expected to come from the surrounding country to see the parade and the performances.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

DOES NOT MAKE CRIMINALS OUT OF NEGROES.

The Rev. A. E. Thomson Makes Investigation In Interest of Lincoln Institute.

The Rev. A. E. Thomson, who is a trustee of Berea College, and who has been giving much of his time during the past few months to the work for the establishment of the Lincoln Institute, was in the city during the last few days and was much interested to note the progress of the Louisville campaign for the new school, which is to provide industrial and normal training for the negroes of this city. He said that he believes Louisville will soon raise her $50,000, the fund now standing between $25,000 and $40,000, and added that the State at large is getting ready to do its share of the work. He said that he believes the new school is a very important step in the education of the negroes, and that it is a very important step in the education of the negroes, and that it is a very important step in the education of the negroes.

SCHUBERTS WILL KEEP UP THEATRICAL WARFARE.

Deception of Fiske and Belasco Will Not Cause Change In Their Plans.

New York, May 1.—The Schuberts today defied the combined forces of Klaw & Erlanger, David Belasco and Hiram Grey. In the interesting fight which is promised for the theatrical business next season, regarding the agreement which Belasco and Fiske reached with Klaw & Erlanger, Louis Schubert had this to say: "Whatever Belasco, Fiske and Klaw & Erlanger may do, does not affect me. The matter is absolutely indifferent to me. The Schuberts are strong enough to go it alone, without any assistance from any one, and we certainly are going to do it. This move on the part of the syndicate could not have found us better prepared. With our New York theaters, and the ones we control throughout the country, we will be able to book our own attractions without the least difficulty.

SOFT-HEARTED THIEF SAVES VICTIMS' LIVES.

Draperies Catch Fire As He Is Looking House, But He Remains To Put Out Blaze.

St. Louis, Mo., May 1.—To save the lives of eight persons who were asleep in the house, most of them women, Carroll Higgins, confessed burglar, turned fireman in the home of the Rev. Jacob Bernhart, and at the cost of capture, remained to extinguish the blaze. While taking silverware from the sideboard in the dining room of the clergyman's home, a candle set fire to draperies hanging near by. Higgins tore down the blazing drapery with his hands, blistering the skin, but preventing the fire from spreading. "When the fire started I could have 'ducked' right then, but I knew if I did those women asleep upstairs would probably be burned to death, or hurt, so I stuck," Higgins said after his arrest. "Every minute I expected them to smother the smoke and come down stairs, but they didn't."

ALLEGES PURE FOOD LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Corn Products Company, Whose Output Was Seized, To Fight Act's Enforcement.

Cincinnati, May 1.—The Corn Products Company, of Chicago, attacks the constitutionality of the pure-food law in an answer filed to-day in the United States District Court to the allegations of United States District Attorney McPherson, who a few days ago caused the United States Marshal to seize forty-six packages and bags of sugar manufactured by the Corn Products Company and found on the premises of the Gerke Brewing Company, in this city. "The Government alleges that the sugar was labeled 'pure sugar,' whereas it was adulterated. The seizure was made under the pure-food and drugs act."

BASEBALL WRITERS' GUIDE.

Never say "ball," "sphere," "leathery," "spindly," "globose" or "unreliable."

Never say "pitcher," "slab artist," "mound performer" or "artillerist." Never say a player "got his base on balls," say he "took the easy route," "got free transportation," "went the easiest way" or "ambled." Never say "first base," "initial rack," "the primal bag," "station 1" or "primal position." Don't pay attention to the man who objects to your form of expression. It is all right and a lot better than he could do under the circumstances.

A quotation from Dr. Woods Hutchins, who is in charge of the insane hospital at the State House, is of interest in this connection. There has been made in the treatment of the insane during the last century, though there is a great deal to be done before things are as they should be.

"For centuries," says he, "we punished the sick in mind, the insane, loaded them down with chains, and put them up in prisons, starving—yes, even flogging them. We excoriated their demons, we prayed over them, we argued with them, we tried to reason with them, we cured. Now we treat their sick and ailing bodies as we would any other class of chronic patients with complete comfort, plentiful and good food, baths and fresh air, gentleness and kindness, leaving their minds and souls to their own devices, and depending insofar as ordinary decent human sympathy and consideration may be regarded as mental remedies, and we succeed in getting 80 to 90 per cent cured, and all but 5 per cent comfortable, contented and comparatively happy."

It is to be expected that the Representatives elected and sent them to Frankfort from all parts of the State to reform our law-making body, they have the same object in view, and will do as they so desire. What our people want they will have sooner or later. What a grand achievement it will be when the treatment of our sick insane, so proper that it will take the practical form of an adequate appropriation for their cure.

A splendid thing it will be for Kentucky when our asylums will become State hospitals, and the same man aged inmates and it can no longer be said of her "Man's inhumanity to man."

Snug Underwear Necessary For Graceful Lines

UNLESS a woman is of extraordinary slimness, every garment she dons must go toward simulating this look. Each piece underlying the willow picture—corsets, petticoats, drawers—must be as near as possible perfect. In fact, for extremes there are some delightful absurdities in secret garments, these so closely hugging the figure that they are scarcely more than a second skin.

Freakish names are frequently given to some narrow freaks which are really drawers in substance and divided skirts in effect. These are redeemed from utter hideousness with leg falls of deep, ribbon-trimmed killings, and since they are tight on silk or fine gauze, they may with decency be the only excuse for a petticoat. Chemises are made mostly in princess form, fitting the figure, most carefully and being long enough also to do away with the need of an extra skirt.

In fact, fashion's one cry in regard to underwear is "We want a little more possible." It may not be entirely modest in the opinion of many women, nevertheless the visible movement of limbs is necessary to give cashmere the beautiful clinging skirts of the hour.

The new corset is inexorable in its demand for these slim lines. The bottom edges of the sterner corsets almost touch the chair when one is seated, and every steady pressure down bends and holds the fronts in with relentless firmness, from four to six stocking elasticities going with such style. But, ladies, as woman is not made of marble, there must be ease somewhere, and this comes with a short top, whose tendency is made up when the corset is pulled around the collar and tied in front.

It is best to use satin on the bias. Any weave of it is correct. It is usually folded double and stitched so that it will not roll back and show the lining. It is finished in front with a loose tie and ends in a point of lace. If the lace is dipped in tea it will take on that Old World color.

One of the newest fashions is a duplicate of the old method used by gentlemen for covering their necks. A high collar with a small necktie is fastened to the neckband of the blouse, its points are turned over by hand in front, and a black satin scarf is wrapped around the collar and tied in front.

serous, and a bust support of cleanly, porous cotton is far more neat, as well as wholesome. The cotton support, too, may be made at home, with the slightest cost for material, and unless a figure is effulgent beyond reason, such compresses are enough. The slim figure which is learned to hold itself with the erectness required by all the fashions of the day, will find that muscles constantly exercised will give the firm look.

Four designs representing some of fashion's newer devices for slimness form the practical aids of today's fashion talk.

The correct being of primary importance, take a good look at the one shown in Fig. A. This is a guide for the naturally slim figure, but you will notice that all lines run toward keeping the front without a sign of curve at the waist line. The bust support also shown in Fig. A is made of stout linen, batiste or gauze, and being long enough also to do away with the need of an extra skirt.

One of the newest fashions is a duplicate of the old method used by gentlemen for covering their necks. A high collar with a small necktie is fastened to the neckband of the blouse, its points are turned over by hand in front, and a black satin scarf is wrapped around the collar and tied in front.

It is best to use satin on the bias. Any weave of it is correct. It is usually folded double and stitched so that it will not roll back and show the lining. It is finished in front with a loose tie and ends in a point of lace. If the lace is dipped in tea it will take on that Old World color.

seline, net and lace gowns in princess form, such a slip is an absolute requirement, and for all fine materials silk with a soft and lustrous finish is best.

Lawn, batiste, etc., compose such undergarments. If the outside dress is without a flounce the model shown in miniature in the background must be considered. With the thin materials which require undergarments, the under lines exactly follow the outer ones. The quantity of material needed to make such a slip for a medium figure is 11½ or 12 yards. The first measurement is for textures in 24-inch widths, and the second for those about 44 inches in width.

Two very dainty little models for great garments suggest hints to the woman who loves her needle and reveals in the more womanly mysteries of undergarments.

Fig. C is a one-piece corset cover which is made from a strip of embroidery sufficiently wide for the purpose. The model is just full enough to be pretty under the fashionable blouses worn, and is especially designed for embroidery finishing. When made of this material there is a great saving of labor, for the embroidery only calls for under-arm seams and the sewing up of the shoulder. But any fine lingerie texture will do, say a delicate muslin for finer service, the necessary headings matching the material used.

This model calls for 17-8 yards of embroidery 16 inches wide for medium figures. For the pelum tail and little sleeves, one-half yard of plain material of 36-inch width is required.

Such exquisite little garments are also made of dainty with a delicate figure in color. French and Italian Valenciennes are the laces most used, and the draw-ribbons are of a washable nature.

The stiff-gored petticoat of highly starched white is conspicuous by its absence these days of extreme slimness. All underskirts designed even for the plainest skirts offer admirable suggestions. These are in soft-finished calicoes with delicate stripes or checks. White embroidery may trim some, but the majority show merely a soft flounce headed with lucks. MARY DEAN.

Etiquette for Embroidery Bee

WOMANKIND has heard and known of sewing bees almost ever since the ark was built and floated, but the "embroidery bee" has just come to town. Though in some features practically the same thing as the "buzzer" which produces merely useful garments, there is pleasing variation in this needle spree, and many a time the individual worker thereat, but he exacts the need of that which will be treasured by her descendants for generations.

This present epidemic for embroidery has resulted in at least one great benefit. Old and exquisite designs are the ones which are being most copied and new ones need to be very choice to get any notice from fingers of taste. So, since the fashions of French women change the world, the return of the wide skirt is still a matter for future inquiry.

Flat heels, even for walking, are never seen except on the ugly boots of the tourists. The Louis XV. heel, which gave the curved instep and look of a small foot, is the only one tolerated by the native elegant. Bookkeepers, declare these add to the grace and lightness of the step, though such sandals as are supplied for the Greek-like evening gowns are for tall women, sometimes entire without heels.

As to gloves, the ones with their natural and delicious perfume are much liked, but since the fashions of French women change the world, the return of the wide skirt is still a matter for future inquiry.

Three Sorrows of Beauty

THREE questions are incessantly being asked me. There are others, of course, but as far as poignancy goes, these certainly rank above all others in importance. The things which they concern are dirt and heart-breaking blights to woman's charm, so, though the various letters have all been privately answered, for the sake of others who may also be in need of little counsel I will touch upon these subjects in this public way.

"Superfluous hair" is there any means-safe and permanent means-whereby it may be removed? So write many women afflicted with this truly dreadful and unfeminine defect, and a number of the letters go on with pathetic earnestness to state that nothing so far has been entirely helpful. Many things are advised as correctives, if not entire cures, though electrolysis is advanced by persons of authority as an absolute destroyer of the unnecessary hair papillae. Other methods used, and which are crowned with success in individual cases, are depilatory pastes and liniments, putting the hairs out with tweezers, bleaching them with peroxide, etc.

The thing to do, then, is to try one means after another, eliminating the twelfth, for this seems only good for the scattered hairs which sometimes appear between the eyebrows. Dermatologists of good reputation should be consulted before one acknowledges defeat, for every authority on a special subject can give at least one useful "pointer," even if he is not all knowing. Remember that where there is a fault, there is a remedy.

Depilatory pastes, with an occasional depilatory toward unnecessary hair, one must be shy of cold creams, for these are so provocative of skin eruptions. Creams containing lanolin or cocoa-butter should be avoided.

Now for the second question, which relates to dandruff, and its destruction.

Though dandruff is not originally a disease, it may through neglect become the cause of a number of scalp diseases. Seborrhea is an exaggerated form of the disease, and is caused by a functional disease of the sebaceous glands, which from some irritation become over-excited, their morbid secretions accumulating in scales upon the scalp.

If these scales have become hardened, they need to be soaked with olive oil the night before washing the head. Green soap, 2 ounces, and eau de Cologne, 2 ounces, make an excellent shampoo for this trouble. Mix the two until thoroughly blended, then after twenty-four hours, with an occasional shake of the bottle, strain the liquid. Massage this well

Modern Methods of Dentistry.

Pyorrhea Cured.

The discovery by us of the method of putting in GOLD CROWNS OR CUTTING OFF A SINGLE TOOTH AND MAKING THE WORK MORE NATURAL, STRONGER AND MORE SANITARY, has caused considerable criticism by the dental profession until they saw some of our work. You must not come to us considering us on the same scale with the cheap advertising dentist, for though our prices are exceedingly low, our work is all of the very highest class. We can replace any partial denture with our ALVEOLAR METHOD, and they will be as solid as a rock and in appearance and comfort superior to any bridge that was ever made.

A poor dentist can do more harm in an hour than a good one can repair in a week. So, why take any chance? Come and see us; just put your teeth against ours, let us examine your teeth, explain our methods and give you professional advice absolutely free of charge. By our ALVEOLAR METHOD we can replace every one of your missing teeth, even though you have only two remaining, no matter how situated, and they will last a lifetime, giving you all the comforts of a natural set of teeth and defying detection. We have a set standard of excellence, which is and always will be maintained. Hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sundays, 10 to 12.

JUDGE BOOE

Sentenced To Eight More Years In Prison.

THIRTEEN IN ALL HE WILL HAVE TO SERVE.

MANY GOVERNORS TO ATTEND TAX CONFERENCE.

POLICE JUDGES APPOINTED.

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—[Special.]—This was the last day of Circuit Court and Judge C. E. Booe was brought from the penitentiary and formally sentenced to eight more years in the penitentiary, making thirteen years in all that has been given him. When asked if he had anything to say why he should not be sentenced he simply shook his head.

Letters of acceptance were received from Gov. E. L. Norris, of Montana; Gov. W. C. C. of Ohio; John Johnson, of Minnesota; and Gov. Fred M. Warner, of Michigan. All these governors will attend the conference on their States, and the tax conference probably will draw together in Louisville one of the most representative gatherings ever held in Kentucky.

Requisition Issued.

Gov. Willson this afternoon granted a requisition on the Governor of Ohio for the return to Kentucky of Raymond Cleveland, who is wanted in Union county on a charge of seduction.

Police Judges Named.

Police Judges were appointed to-day by Gov. Willson. The names of the judges are: John Johnson, of Ohio; John Johnson, of Minnesota; and Gov. Fred M. Warner, of Michigan.

FOSTER IS AT LAST A FULL-FLEDGED CAPTAIN.

Following out intentions formed many months ago, Foster, who has been in the penitentiary for a long time, was promoted to a full-fledged captain.

Police Officer Who Pleaded Guilty To Assault and Battery Gets Shoulder Straps.

Following out intentions formed many months ago, Foster, who has been in the penitentiary for a long time, was promoted to a full-fledged captain.

That Foster has been slated for promotion to a captain nearly a year ago, and that he has been in the penitentiary for a long time, was reported by a police officer.

Linsinger was another that for some time had been slated for promotion. He, like Foster, had been acting captain for several months.

"MOVING DAY" OPERATIONS DELAYED BY THE STORM.

Chicago, May 1.—The annual moving operations, with which thousands of residents of Chicago are wont to celebrate the first of May, have been knocked off by a storm that has been raging since yesterday.

Moving experts estimated that many movers will be at least twenty-four hours later in getting the furniture placed in the front window of the new flat and the other household goods in place.

Illinois River Bridge Goes Down.

Peoria, Ill., May 1.—Three arches of the new concrete-steel wagon bridge over the Illinois River, which was recently opened for traffic, fell into the river early this morning. No one was injured.

At 6 o'clock a farmer crossed the bridge driving a team of oxen, and the first arch collapsed under the weight of the team. The contractor of the structure was not $30,000.

Wilhelmina Doing Well.

The Hague, May 1.—The condition of Queen Wilhelmina, who yesterday gave birth to a daughter, and the infant Princess, is thoroughly satisfactory.

The Princess has been named Juliana Louise Emma Marie Wilhelmina.

Evening Issue Suspended.

Boston, May 1.—The Boston Herald made the announcement in this morning's issue that it has suspended the publication of the evening edition of the paper.

The morning edition, however, will be continued.

CHICAGO SALOONS MUST CLOSE AT 1 O'CLOCK.

Chicago, May 1.—The lid is on. Official word has gone out that Chicago saloons, cafes and restaurants are to be compelled to obey the 1 o'clock closing ordinance.

Until two weeks ago, it is estimated by well informed politicians, there were 800 or 900 all night saloons in Chicago, not counting the clubs. As the time for paying the annual saloon license fee approaches, the lid was lifted a trifle higher until it was said that Chicago had been 1,500 and 2,000 drink emporiums operating twenty-four hours a day.

So large was the number that it was decided to put all under the ban, hence

CHARGED WITH SHOOTING WITHOUT WOUNDING.

In a dispute over an alleged car game, Garfield Burns and Charles Minor, both colored stable hands employed at Church Hill Downs, began hitting each other, according to the police. Burns, who was getting the worst of the fight, drew his revolver and fired four shots at Minor, the police say. They missed their mark, but the shots were heard by Corp. Lutz and Patrolman Maloney. Corp. Lutz found Burns under a bed in one of the stables, and charged him with the shooting without wounding. Minor was also taken into custody. He was charged with disorderly conduct.

"INSPIRED BY AN ANGEL TO SAVE COLORED PEOPLE."

Insisting that he was inspired by an angel of heaven to save the colored people, George W. Long, colored, was taken into custody last night at his home, 305 West Magazine street, by Detectives Streely and Chaffin. He was charged with larceny. It is alleged that the negro has written many letters and sent them to numerous residents of the city, both white and colored. In the letters he endeavors to explain his mission here on earth. Most of the letters were sent to the detectives' office and Long's arrest followed.
